Monday Morning.............Feb. 8, 1858.

REPUBLICAN WARD MEETINGS AND CITY CONVENTION.

The Republican voters of the city of Chicago are requested to meet in their respective Wards, at the places hereinafter designated, on FRIDAY, the 12th day of February, at 7½ o'clock P. M., for the selection of delegates to a Convention to be held for the nomination of candidates to be voted for by the city at large, at the ensuing March municipal election, and for the nomination of candidates for Street Commissioner, (to be chosen by delegates from their respective divisions,) and for candidates for Aldermen and Constables in the several Wards. The meeting will be called to order by the Ward Committees, at 7½ o'clock precisely. The delegates to the Convention are apportioned as follows:

First Ward	9 Delegates	Sixth Ward	11 Delegates
Second "	[illegible]	Seventh "	[illegible]
Third "	[illegible]	Eighth "	[illegible]
Fourth "	[illegible]	Ninth "	[illegible]
Fifth "	[illegible]	Tenth "	7

The places of holding the meetings in the different Wards will be as follows:

First Ward—City Hotel.
Second Ward—South Market Hall.
Third Ward—Sheriff's Office, Court House.
Fourth Ward—Engine House No. 2.
Fifth Ward—West Market Hall.
Sixth Ward—Engine House No. 6.
Seventh Ward—German House, corner of Indiana and Twelfth streets.
Eighth Ward—Rehder's Saloon, on Clark street, between Superior and Huron streets.
Ninth Ward—Lake House.
Tenth Ward—Niemeyer's Hotel, corner Canal and Michel streets.

The delegates elected at the Ward meetings will meet in Convention at SOUTH MARKET HALL, on SATURDAY, the 13th day of February, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of making nominations.

By order of the Executive Committee.
N. B. JUDD, President.
B. F. DOWNING, Secretary.

Currency and Exchange.

The adjourned meeting of the merchants and business men of this city will be held at the Board of Trade rooms this evening, for resuming the consideration of the subject of currency and exchange. This is an important meeting, and should be largely and generally attended. The resolutions heretofore offered and discussed will be finally acted upon, and other business will be brought before the meeting for discussion and action.

Three Times Three and a Tiger.

When the Telegraphic despatch from Washington, announcing the manly response made by the Republican members to slave-driving insult and ruffianism, was read in the West Market Hall meeting on Saturday night, the whole audience rose to their feet and gave three times three cheers; and, again, another three for the Illinois member who "was conspicuous among the Republicans, dealing heavy blows upon the nigger drivers."

Decency Sticking Out.

How much better lying is than "personalities," may be judged by the following from Sunday morning's Times, in its description of the West Side meetings: Look on this picture, and then on that.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.	REPUBLICAN MEETING.
About twelve hundred voters of the Sixth ward assembled last evening in Union Hall, 71 West Lake street. The hall, though a large one—forty by seventy feet—was not large enough to contain the crowd which came to hear the speaking.	A small, family party of Republicans met in the West Market Hall last evening. In all there were about fifty or sixty, mostly seeking after office. Ward, K. N. and candidate for City Attorney, led off in his usual Native American harangue.

Examine these statements and you will find they contain seven lies, viz.:

1st. There are only 600 Democrats in the Sixth Ward, all told. 2d. A portion, say one-third of them, were not present, which would reduce the audience to 400, or one third of the Times' estimate. 3d. The hall is not 40 by 70, nor will it begin to hold 1200 men. 4th. The hall was large enough to contain all the tax-eaters who came to hear La Rue, Speed and Brainard. 5th. There were as many or more voters at the "family party" as at the tax-eater's meeting. 6th. Instead of there being 50 or 60, there were at least 500 or 600, or ten times as many as the Times alleges. 7th. Ward made no "usual Native American harangue," but a straight-forward Republican speech.—Here we have pointed out seven falsehoods in about as many lines. And this, too, in the "decency" paper, which promised to conduct this campaign in a dignified, honorable way. Will the Times tell us where its "decency" comes in?

A Few Points to Keep in Mind.

During this city canvass we desire the people to bear in mind a few important things:

1st, That the Lecompton swindle is strictly and exclusively a Democratic measure.

2d, The President has made it the leading measure of his administration, and the test of party fealty.

3d, At the Light Guard Hall ratification meeting, the Democratic Association endorsed Buchanan, and expressed their "confidence in his administration" by formal resolution.

4th, The President of that meeting—Dr. Brainard—is now the Democratic candidate for Mayor of Chicago.

5th, The Times pretends that the Chicago Democracy are "Anti-Lecompton." Its party is looking one way, and rowing another. How can a man sustain the Administration, and oppose its principles, at the same time?

6th, There are no real opponents of the Lecompton usurpation, except the Republicans, and those Democrats who are going to act with them.

7th, On next Saturday a genuine Anti Lecompton ticket will be put in nomination, for the support of the people. It will be the only Anti-Lecompton ticket in the field—all others are, and will be, bogus, deceptive, and border ruffian in disguise.

8th, The tax eaters took good care to pass no resolution, nor to utter a word, at their nominating Convention, concerning the Lecompton swindle, the Administration, or the supporters of the Border Ruffians. Bear these grave facts in mind.

RECEIPTS FROM THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Last week Col. Miller State Treasurer received from the Illinois Central Railroad Company, the State's share of the gross earnings of that road, for the quarter last ended, amounting to $86,449 02. The following will show the gradual increase, which has been made in the receipts from that source:

Dec. 1, 1855	$29,750 60
June 1, 1856	[illegible]
Dec. 1, 1856	[illegible]
June 1, 1857	59,196 62
Dec. 1, 1857	86,449 02

The Mormons.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The Times has an interesting account of the views of the Mormons, in regard to the movements of the government, derived from an interview with Hon. Harace S. Eldridge, one of the leaders of the Saints, who is now on a visit to this city, and is charged with a general supervision of the Mormon Church in the East.

Mr. Eldridge seeks to correct certain misapprehensions in the minds of the public concerning the disposition of the Mormons, but admits that any attempts of the troops to enter Salt Lake city in hostile array, will inevitably result in bloodshed.

[Special Despatch to the N. Y. Herald.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Mr. Douglas and his friends despair of defeating the Lecompton Constitution. They are trying to effect a compromise in some shape. They are loosing ground every day. It is a foregone conclusion that the Constitution will pass both houses.

Hon. WILLIAM MEDILL, of Ohio, first auditor in the Treasury Department, and late Governor of the State, is lying very low, and there is scarcely any hopes of his recovery.

☞ Will the Times inform the public what party it will act with, if the Democracy pass the Lecompton bill? We have asked it this question once before. Why don't it answer?

CITY ITEMS.

Currency and Exchange.

MEETING OF MERCHANTS AND BUSINESS MEN THIS EVENING.—The regular meeting of merchants and business men having in consideration the subject of currency and exchange, will be held this evening at the Board of Trade Rooms.

THERE will be a meeting of the Tenth Ward Republican Club, at Niemeyer's Hotel, corner Canal and Mitchell streets, on Monday evening, February 8th. By order of the Club. R. B. STONE, Sec.

THIRD WARD.—There will be a Republican meeting in this ward, on Tuesday evening, at Michael Hemrich's, South Clark street, between Polk and Taylor streets. Competent speakers will address the meeting both in English and German.

MANY REPUBLICANS.

SECOND WARD REPUBLICAN MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the Republicans of the Second Ward at No. 243 Clark street, corner of Jackson street, on Tuesday evening, 9th inst., at 7 1-2 o'clock, Good speakers will be in attendance. Republicans generally are invited to attend.

CHAS. L. WILSON, ISAAC SPEER, CHAS. H. ABBOTT, } Ward Com.

A CORRECTION.—It seems that Patrick Conglin holds over as Alderman in the Tenth Ward, and not J. Schmidt, as we supposed at the moment of writing a paragraph in relation to a candidate for Alderman in Saturday's issue.

FIRE ON UNION STREET ON THE 3D INST.—We are informed by Messrs. Munger & Burroughs, occupants, that their loss by the above fire was $900—insurance $500. The Fire Brigade rendered efficient service in saving what was saved.

REV. T. STARR KING'S LECTURE.—A goodly audience attended the lecture of Rev. T. Starr King, Metropolitan Hall, Friday evening, on the "Laws of Disorder." It was an able lecture, and most eloquently delivered.

BRYANT & STRATTON'S FREE LECTURES.—J. B. Merwin, Esq., of the Home Journal, will deliver the next of the course this evening at College Hall, No. 48 Clark street. Subject—"The Elements of Power." Ladies and gentlemen invited.

BLOODY NOSES, cracked heads, and a considerable amount of plain Saxon, are generally the result of iced and uncleaned side-walks. We saw a lady fall upon the side-walk near the Clarendon, Saturday, which might have proved quite serious. Clear off your side-walks!

BELL & SLOAN'S FREE LECTURES.—R. S. Blackwell, Esq., will deliver the twenty-first lecture of the winter course before Bell's Commercial College, in the new hall, Portland Block, on Monday evening, Feb. 8th, at 7 1-2 o'clock. Subject—"Balance of Trade." Merchants and business men are respectfully invited.

COLLINGWOOD LINE OF STEAMERS.—Three steamboats, to form a tri-weekly line from Collingwood, (C. W.) to Chicago, have been offered, if a bonus of $15,000 be secured. $5,000 of this sum has been guaranteed by the people of Collingwood, and the people of Toronto are moving to raise the balance.

FRANKENSTEIN'S BUST OF MCLEAN.—It may be of interest to subscribers in Chicago to this work of art, to know that the busts of Judge McLean will be ready for delivery by May or June. The official duties of the Judge prevented as early sittings as the artist expected, hence the delay. The bust is regarded as a very fine work, and remarkably true to life.

TIT-FOR-TAT.—At a small party on G—— street, a tailor remarked in a cutting manner, that no man lived in so much from "hand to mouth as a dentist." One of the profession present, feeling insulted, replied "that nothing loved cabbage so much as a ——" The tailor blew his nose so loud just then, that the rest of the sentence was lost to the company.

A SPECIMEN.—Scarcely a day passes without some of the bills contracted by the Dyer administration being presented to the Council. The following was presented on Saturday:

CHICAGO, Feb. 4, 1858.
City of Chicago to Chicago Gas Light and C. Co.

For gas consumed in street lamps for quarter ending Dec. 31, 1856,	$4,632 96
Thirteen months' interest,	501 88
	$5,134 84

GREAT LAND SALE.—We call attention to an advertisement in another column, relating to the sale of 30,000 acres of land belonging to the county of McLean to come off at Bloomington on the 15th inst. The title to these lands is direct from the United States, and the average appraisal $6 an acre. Capitalists will do well to look after this sale. Pamphlets containing descriptions of these lands, with appraised values, may by seen at this office, and at the office of G. P. Randall, architect.

COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.—The spring term of the North Western Female College, at Evanston, will commence Monday, March 1st. This institution is well known. Its management is based upon the common sense thesis "that it costs no more to have a Female College of the highest rank, than it does to cherish a sickly creature of inferior grade." We can assert positively that the course of study is as thorough as that pursued in the best Female Colleges of the land; and we are sure that the energy of its teachers is seldom equalled. Let such institutions be encouraged.

A FALSE REPORT.—The daily Bulletin (published by one Bean, we believe,) states in its Saturday's issue that "John N. Staples has assigned to J. Whitehead for the benefit of his creditors." This is utterly false. Mr. Staples is a very wealthy man—one of our "solid men"—and scarcely owes a debt of any sort. The transaction which gave rise to this false report was simply this: Mr. Staples was security for Mr. Whitehead for a few thousand dollars, which he adjusted, and made an agreement with Whitehead, granting him extension of time in which to refund the money. The "Assignment" was simply an Agreement. The Recorder says that this Bean is continually making errors in his Reports.

WHAT'S IN A NAME.—Call an infant Beelzebub, and give him the eloquence of one of the lesser angels, the face and form of "the god of a silver bow" who had a shrine and an oracle at Delphi, and see what he will amount to. To wit. Can Jemima ever be a name to conjure with, or Ichabod grow musical on the lips of love, or Ebenezer fill the trump of fame? What's in a name. Much. Had Shakespeare's name been Higgins, or Washington's Jenkins, how odd it would sound to speak of the "Immortal Higgings," or "Jenkins, first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen!" Give an angelic form and face, the name of Stubbs, and immortality is knocked higher than a kit. There is something in a name.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENT OF THE METHODISTS.—Saturday evening a large meeting of the substantial business men of the Methodist Society was held in the basement of the Clark Street Church, to take into consideration the plan for the new edifice to be erected at the corner of Clark and Washington streets. Two or three designs were exhibited by architects, among them those of G. P. Randall, Rankin & James, and others, which were very beautiful. It is settled that the old Clark Street Church, with its squatty doors, chubby and grotesque spire, will be demolished, and a more elegant and imposing building take its place, fully up to grade, of modern architecture, and most probably fronted with our beautiful Athens stone. Plans were not finally adopted, but a committee of fifteen, appointed to take charge of the matter and examine plans, is to report at a meeting called at the same place Saturday evening week, when a full determination will be had. Reports from those having the "ways and means" in charge, represented that the probabilities were that money in abundance could be had on loan—that moneyed men assured them there was a likelihood of more funds being on the market in the next three months than there has been here for several years, or possibly will be for years to come. It will require a fine building by this society to compare favorably with the superb block of Mr. Larmon on the corner opposite, and with the Portland Block on the corner east of it. Yet the heart of our flourishing city requires that none but elegant structures be erected in such a locality.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETINGS.

Second Ward Meeting at Uhlich's Hotel.

A grand Republican rally was held on Saturday evening at Uhlich's Hotel, corner of State and Rio Grande streets. The spacious basement of the hotel was filled from seven o'clock till ten with the laborers and tax-payers of Carville, and the Southern limits of the city.

The meeting was organized by the election of DR. H. N. HURLBUT, President, PETER WOLF, Vice President, and C. L. JENKS, Secretary.

The meeting was addressed in English by William Eddy, J. C. Miller, William Justice, John Wentworth and others; and in German by H. Kreismann, Theobald Hartmann, and J. W. Hendricks.

The First and Second Ward Republicans are wide awake, and good for three hundred apiece at the polls.

Grand Rally at West Market Hall.

The Republicans of the West Division had a grand rally on Saturday evening at the West Market Hall.

The meeting was called to order by A. Alkin, Esq., and organized by choosing Artemus Carter, Chairman, and S. N. Wilcox, Secretary.

The Chairman briefly stated the objects of the meeting, after which several gentlemen were called out, and made stirring and appropriate speeches.

In the course of the evening the news of the brutal attack of Keitt, of South Carolina, upon Hon. G. A. Grow, of Pa., on the floor of the House of Representatives at Washington, and of the melee which sprung out of it, was detailed to the meeting, whereupon "three times three," which made the Hall ring, was given to the plucky Grow, who, in self defence, had floored the ruffian, and to the gallant Washburne, of Illinois, who had nobly distinguished himself in the affray.

Among the speakers were Messrs. J. D. Ward, N. Sturtevant, S. O. Thatcher, C. N. Holden, E. Anthony, Artemus Carter, and others. The hall was well filled, and the meeting most emphatically a success. At a little past ten o'clock the meeting adjourned, to meet again on Friday evening, at the nominating caucuses of the wards.

HOG PACKING IN THE COUNTRY.—From various points over the country, at which most of the hog crop is packed, we have advices of the number slaughtered this season. A falling off in most of them from last year's operations in this line is noted. We give below the number packed at a few points in this State, this year and last:

	1857.	1856.		1857.	1856.
Galesburg	1,75[illegible]	4,684	Peoria & Pekin	30,000	26,700
Galena	800	2,900	M'nd City and vicinity	3,000
Lacon	7,500	7,169	Mt. Carmel	[illegible]	7,200
New Boston	2,50[illegible]	4,400	Lawrenceville	[illegible]
Naples	[illegible]		Huntsville	15,000
Xenia	5,000

The number at Peoria is some 26,000 and at Pekin some 4,000. The following is the number packed at a few prominent packing points in other States:

Burlington Iowa	16,000	Lafayette, Indiana	12,000
Terre Haute, Ind.	43,000	Eugene, "	10,000
Indianapolis, "	30,000	Cambridge City "	5,000
Gosport, "	22,000	Economy, Ind.	4,700
Vincennes, "	20,000	Logansport, Ind.	4,000
Crawfordsville "	12,000	Hagerstown, "	2,700
Delphi "	[illegible]

At Indianapolis, the number is 30,000 this season against 37,160 last.

At other points, the most heavy, an increase is noted over last year. At Princeton, Ind., 23,683 head is the number against 10,577 last season. The estimated business of the season at Cincinnati is 455,000 against 344,512 last year and 405,396 the previous season.

STATE STREET MARKET.—This building is to be sold to-day; and though it was regarded with pride only half a dozen years ago, its days are numbered, being now considered an eye sore which must fall a prey to the spirit of modern improvement. It has already been deserted by several of its occupants. Hereafter our meats, fish and vegetables will be kept in more cleanly and decent-looking apartments. Three nice meat markets will be in the Garrett Block—among them the old stand-bys, C. P. Albee & Co. and Curtis & Co. The Curtis Brothers have also opened a choice meat market in McCarthy's marble building on the corner of Washington and Dearborn streets. Rudolph W. Wehrli, another South Market man, is fitting up a comfortable and convenient meat market in front of his residence on Washington street, near State. The probabilities are that we shall have cheaper and better meat in these private establishments than we ever had in the public market. At any rate, we shall make a more splendid thoroughfare of State street without the market obstruction.

POLICE COURT—SATURDAY.—Allen Miner, drunk and vagrancy, $5 and 30 days in bridewell; Wm. Bell, (colored) disobeying depot orders and resisting officers, $5; Robt. Morly, violating depot ordinance, special bail.

Patrick Boyle was fined on Saturday morning by Justice King for cheating in selling butter. He used a spring balance, and when he weighed the butter he gave the scale a sudden push, which made it weigh about one pound more than it really was.

Levi Rosenfield, who bought a horse of an Irishman a few days since, and paid him $65 in bills on broken banks which were worthless, was held to bail Saturday afternoon by Justice Grant, in the sum of $500.

R. H. Miles, who testified that he furnished Rosenfield with the money, and advised the man to sell the horse to Rosenfield was held to bail in the sum of $400.

CHICAGO YOUNG LADIES' INSTITUTE.—The spring term of this well established institution commences this morning, February 8th, in the vestry of the New Church, corner of Wabash avenue and Van Buren street. The following are the able corps of teachers: J. W. Colcord, A. M., Principal; A. J. Sawyer, A. M., Teacher in the Mathematical Department; Mons. Jacques Emile Hamilton, French Language and Literature; Mr. Oscar Faulhaber, German Language and Literature. The principal, Mr. Colcord, is a gentleman in every respect, well calculated by experience and manners to have charge of an institution of learning for young ladies, and we are pleased to know that he is meeting with success in building up a school in that pleasant locality.

DETENTION OF TRAINS.—Messrs. Editors: The passenger train from Rock Island to Chicago last evening, was detained several hours in consequence of having attached to it a cattle and hog train. The train was, from this cause, some three or four hours behind time. Many of the passengers were bound East on important business and could not well afford the detention of 12 hours in Chicago. We wish to inquire of this Railroad Company, through your columns, if it is good treatment on their part to carry thereon passengers behind a freight of hogs, and by the delay break their connection with other trains, and disappoint important business arrangements—cause a loss of one day to their passengers, besides an additional expense of some dollars.

These are considerations of no small importance to travellers.

TO THE MILLION.—Prof. Wood, of St. Louis, has, after years of deep study and untiring research, succeeded in presenting to the public an article superior to any now in use, and indeed it is truly a wonderful discovery; we advert to his Hair Restorative—the only article that has been completely successful in cheating Age of his gray locks, removing dandruff, itching, scrofula, &c. It restores the gray-headed to more than the original beauty; adds new lustre to locks already luxuriant; having the effect on coarse, harsh hair to render it glossy and wavy; fastens permanently, hair that is loose or falling, and many other qualities which will become known as soon as used. The pride of mankind is singularly developed in the keeping and arrangement of the hair—perhaps from the fact that it is the only portion of the human body that we can train in any way we choose; how important, then, having this portion left to our care, that we should use all the means science has placed in our hands to render it beautiful and permanent. If you would have beautiful hair, glossy hair, hair with its natural color elegantly preserved to extreme old age, don't fail to purchase Wood's Hair Restorative.—[Daily Iowa State Gazette.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE OFFICE, Saturday Evening, Feb. 6, 1858.

Another very active day in the Hog, Cattle and Provision trade. Receipts of the leading articles by rail yesterday were 1,064 bbls Flour; 12,126 bu wheat; 1,800 bu Corn; 2,307 bu Oats; 221 bu Barley; 50 bbls Highwines; 9,220 lbs Provisions; 19,650 lbs Hides; 196 head Cattle; 1,334 dressed and 2,000 live Hogs. It will be perceived from this that the improved state of the country roads increases the receipts of produce. As Spring approaches, money becomes more plenty—a number of Canadian capitalists, as well as New Yorkers, are here with funds in abundance, who are buying Hogs, Provisions, &c., and we observe heavy orders are here from others to purchase Pork, Beef, &c., which must tend to make an improvement in financial affairs in the city and country. The Flour and Wheat trade is yet rather a drug—we only noted one sale of wheat to-day worth mentioning, but buyers were plenty at the low rate of 54c in store, which holders refused to accept.

We note transactions of to-day, nominal rates of the leading staples, and the general condition of the market at the close, as follows:

FLOUR—There are offers for spring extras at $3.00, but this figure is declined by buyers. 100 bbls "Dewitt" superfine sold at $2.50. Buckwheat Flour is dull and prices are lower; 4 tons sold at 80c per cwt. Corn Meal (new) is in large supply and slow of sale; two tons unbolted sold at $12,00. Bran and Shorts are in fair demand at $7,00@8,00 ⅌ ton.

WHEAT—The transactions in Wheat to-day were very trifling, holders of large lots refusing to meet buyers' views. 3,000 bu standard spring picked up in small lots at 54c in store, would include the larger portion of the business done, except a round lot of 3,000 bu well located, at 54½ in store. One car load extra spring sold at 55c in store, and in bags delivered it is nominal at 56@57c. Winter wheat is nominal at 80@85c for white, and 70@75c for No. 1 red.

CORN—All yesterday's receipts of shelled (650 bu) were taken by a city distiller at 36c ⅌ 60 lbs delivered. Another distiller contracted for 2,000 bu for next week's delivery at 35c ⅌ 60 lbs.

OATS—Sales were made of parcels in bags at 22c, 23½c, and 24c; the bulk at the inside figure.

BARLEY—We quote inferior, dull at 22@35c. 500 bu prime sold at 38c in store.

RYE—In steady demand at 50c delivered.

PROVISIONS—There is an active inquiry for Mess Pork; 500 bbls Illinois River packed sold at private terms, on short time, understood to be equivalent to $13,00 cash; 200 bbls heavy city packed, and 200 bbls very fair but not heavy country packed sold at $13,00 and $12,50; the former lot was held at a higher figure unless the latter was taken at the figure named. Lard is quiet and unchanged; 50 bbls No. 1 Lard sold at 8c and a like amount at 7¾c; 50 bbls head lard at 7¾c. Cut Meats are in good inquiry; 19,000 lbs packed shoulders and hams sold at $4.80 and $6.80 ⅌ 100 lbs; 1,000 green hams sold at 6⅛c from the block. Sides are nominal at 5⅛c. Cured Hams are held by packers at 7½; country 6¾. Mess Beef is held at $8@9. Tallow is firm at 10c; yellow grease is held at 7c; white at 8c.

DRESSED HOGS—Geo. Hog Packing in Illinois.

The editor of the St. Louis Price Current in reply to circulars addressed by him to the various packing points of the West, has received answers as follows:

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 21, 1858.

We have closed our packing here for the season, with the following result:

Cut and packed here, 23,000 head; average weight, 200 lbs; about 1,000 boxes of middles packed here for the English market. We fall short from the number cut here last season some 4,000 head, the increase in weight is from 3 to 4 lbs to the hog.

CANTON, Ill., Jan. 26.

In answer to your circular of the 5th inst., would say, the number of hogs packed at this point will be about 20,000, average weight about 200 lbs. Production of lard about the same as last year.

All put up, mess pork, hams and shoulder.

DE SOTO, Ill., Jan. 20.

5,000 hogs cut here; will average 175 lbs; the heaviest hogs of this season, 256 lbs; one lot of hogs, 51 head, averaging 252 lbs. The same amount of hogs was packed here the last two seasons, all put up for New Orleans market. There were 1200 hogs packed at Carbondale—as near as I can tell, suppose they will average 175 lbs.

CARBONDALE, Ill., Jan. 20.

In this town and De Soto, six miles north, there has been killed this season, 3,500 head of hogs, average weight about 200 lbs, Lard 20 per cent; the meat all shipped to New Orleans in bulk. Last season there were killed in this place and De Soto, 3,800 head, average weight about the same. This place and De Soto are the only points where hogs have been packed this season and last, in the county.

OQUAWKA, Ill., Jan. 13, 1858.

There will not be over 500 Hogs cut up here this season, and that, and mostly made into Bacon for home use. The number fattened in our county will not exceed last year's crop, the average weight [illegible]. Hogs not so fat. Corn was much damaged by early frost, and the pork yields about one-third less lard. We have been in the packing business for ten years, and have never seen pork yield less lard. Hogs have been run off mostly alive, by rail to New York and Chicago, both this season and last. Buyers have paid $3 to $3.25, gross weight—equal to $4 nett here.

CLARENDON, Ill., Jan. 22.

We have packed about 1,200 head, average weight 195 lbs, about usual amount of lard, cut for home market.

From what I can learn from other points near us, there is fully the usual amount packed, and the general average in weight and lard fully equal to former years.

BEARDSTOWN, Jan. 21, 1858.

Yesterday Messrs. Billings, Nolte & McClure packed the last lot of hogs they intend slaughtering this season, and on Friday last Messrs. Chadsey & Bro., finished, so that we may safely report the season as closed in Beardstown.

We do not think the increase in the number here indicates an increase in the crop throughout the country, as it must be borne in mind that at several points where large numbers of hogs have usually been packed, none have been packed this year. Meredosia packed 4,000 last year to none this; Lagrange 2,000 last to 5,000 this; Frederick 5,000 last to 1,000 this, and many other points show a like decrease.

The following tables show the number packed in Beardstown and Chandlerville in 1856-'57, as compared with 1857-'58.

	1857-'58.	1856-'57.
Billings, Nolte & McClure	15,570	4,870

Total	28,997	13,570

BATH, Ill., Jan. 28.

No hogs are being packed at this town this winter.

SHAWNEETOWN, Ill., Jan. 27.

Below I hand you a statement as near as I can give. I am now done slaughtering.

Last year	24,500	4,206,517—averaging 179 lbs nett.
This season	11,500	2,081,882—averaging 181 lbs nett.

This season	2,100 "

Last year	[illegible] lbs, nett estimate.

Last year	5,000 boxes middles.
This season	600 "

HOGS PACKED BY OTHER PARTIES.

Last year	1,000 hogs—here and vicinity.
This season	3,500 "

GALENA, Ills., Jan. 28.

The number of hogs packed in our city will not exceed 1,000 head, against 7,000 head last season; the average weight about 215 lbs. The hog crop in Northern Illinois and Iowa, and that portion of Wisconsin near us, is decidedly short. There are no hogs cut this season at other points in our vicinity. Nearly all the hogs are wanted for home consumption.

LAKE NAVIGATION CO.—The sale of twenty of the vessels of the Lake Navigation Co., to come off yesterday, we understand resulted in the purchase of the brig Oswego, by W. A. Fox, for $3,300, and the adjournment of any further offered auction to a future day. The adoption of the resolution of the Board of Directors to sell so much of their stock was for the purpose of raising funds to relieve the Company. As there were few bidders on hand, they could not be sold except at a great sacrifice.—[Buffalo Com. Adv., 4th.

The total cost of the work upon the route recommended is estimated at $22,000,000.

BORDER RUFFIANISM IN CONGRESS.

A Fire Eater Assaults a Republican and is Knocked Down.

A General Fight on the Floor of the House.

HOUSE—FEB. 6.

The House was in session all night, mainly engaged in taking the yeas and nays on motions to adjourn, eating, smoking, sleeping, etc.

At about half past one a serious affray occurred, which is thus narrated by a member and a witness:

Mr. Grow objected to Mr. Quitman's making any remarks.

Mr. Keitt said, "If you are going to object, return to your own side of the House."

Mr. Grow responded, "This is a free hall, and every man has a right to be where he pleases."

Mr. Keitt then came up to Mr. Grow and said, "I want to know what you mean by such an answer as that."

Mr Grow replied, "I mean just what I say—this is a free hall, and a man has a right to be where he pleases."

Mr. Keitt, taking Mr. Grow by the throat said, "I will let you know that you are a d—d Black Republican puppy."

Mr. Grow knocked up his hand, saying, "I shall occupy such place in this hall as I please, and no nigger-driver shall crack his whip over me."

Mr. Keitt then again grabbed Mr. Grow by the throat, and Mr. Grow knocked his hand off a second time. Mr. Keitt coming at him again, Mr Grow knocked him down.

The reporter adds: "The respective friends of both parties rushed to the rescue; various members on each side engaged in the fight, which took place in the area fronting the Clerk's desk.

Mr. Washburne, of Ill., was conspicuous among the Republicans dealing heavy blows. The Speaker loudly and imperatively demanded order, and called on the sergeant-at-arms to interfere. That functionary carrying his mace of office, together with his assistants, hurried to the scene and crowded into the thickest of the fight, in which at least a dozen members were engaged.

Some minutes elapsed before this truly fearful contest was ended.

Further difficulties are apprehended.

From 4 to 6½ o'clock the time was wasted on the rival motions. At that hour Mr. Quitman submitted a resolution that the House adjourn till Monday next, when the subject under consideration (the Kansas Message,) shall be resumed, and the vote on the impending propositions shall be taken, without any further debate or dilatory motions.

Unanimous consent was given for the introduction of the resolution, which was agreed to, and the Speaker declared the House adjourned till Monday, when the subject will come up as the special order.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF THE FIGHT IN CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Just before 2 o'clock this A. M., the House was thrown into a violent excitement and a fearful scene of confusion ensued.

It appears that while Mr. Grow was walking down on the Democratic side of the Hall, Mr. Keitt, of S. C. and a friend approached him and a difficulty took place.

Keitt struck Grow and the parties were then separated by their friends. Exciting and menacing words were however exchanged, and Keitt again dealt a blow at Grow, which the latter returned, knocking Keitt down. Crowds of their respective friends rushed to the rescue, and the various members on each side engaged in a fight in the area fronting the Clerk's desk.

Washburne, of Ill., was conspicuous among the Republicans, dealing heavy blows.

The Speaker loudly called for order and called on the Sergeant at-Arms to interfere. That functionary, carrying his mace of office, together with his assistants, hurried to the scene and crowded into the thickest of the fight, in which at least a dozen members were engaged. Some minutes elapsed before quiet was restored and the members returned reluctantly to their seats.

There was a dead calm in comparison with the scene just enacted, when Mr. Quitman moved they now adjourn and take the question on the reference of the Message of the President on Kansas affairs, on Monday, at 1 o'clock P.M.

Emphatic and general responses from the Republican side of "No! no!" Confusion began to break out afresh, when the Speaker said he would direct the Sergeant-at-Arms to put under arrest those who disregarded the order of the House.

Mr. Campbell of Ohio, said he foresaw disagreeable feelings would result here from the exciting questions connected with Kansas affairs, when he was called to order by Mr. Barksdale.

Mr. Campbell said he wished the gentleman from Mississippi to know that he was his peer.

Steamboat Disaster on the Upper Mississippi.

FIFTEEN LIVES LOST.

THE STEAMER "COL. CROSSMAN" BURNED.

CAIRO, Feb. 6.—About 7 o'clock Thursday evening, the 4th inst., the Col. Crossman from New Orleans to St. Louis, took fire about one mile above New Madrid, Mo., by the explosion of the nigger boiler. The flames were rapidly communicated fore and aft, and in a few minutes the entire boat was in flames. The pilot either lost control of her or abandoned her to her fate, as she floated very slowly down the river, on the bar side.

While opposite New Madrid, the cabin fell in and the confusion became general. Boats were dispatched from the town with all possible promptitude to save those who escaped the flames. All were saved that human efforts could rescue under the circumstances.

The steamer Southerner coming along at the close of the scene, offered all the aid she possibly could.

The boat is a total loss. She grounded below the town, on the opposite side of the river and burned to the water's edge. She was heavily freighted and had a large number of passengers.

Captains Cheever and Bixby think the number lost is not large—twelve or fifteen at the most, among whom are Capt. Converse, of St. Louis, one fireman, Alex. Martin, bar-keeper, Mrs. Green, and Mr. Durking, Chicago.

Supposed to be lost—Mrs. Taylor and child, St. Louis; Mr. Cheever, St. Louis; Johnston, clerk, Wilson Ferris, pilot, Lowe, mate, one assistant engineer, and the steward, John B. Canada.

Officers saved—Capt. Cheever, Robert Duffy, engineer, Thomas Duffy, engineer, two assistant engineers, Charles Bixby, pilot, C. M. Underwood, carpenter, Pollock, second clerk, A. Bailey, porter.

Cabin passengers saved—Mrs. Wall, Miss Dora Cheever, Mrs. Jackson, St. Louis; Mr. Noel, lady and son, Memphis; D. G. Taylor, St. Louis; Mr. O'Farrell and lady, Galena; Dr. Taylor, Mr. Miller, Captain Hill, of the Herald; Mr. Woods, John Hart, New Orleans; Mr. Jones, G. W. Miller, J. B. Jones, J. E. Woods, Decatur; Mr. Taylor, James McKee, Penn.; Mr. George Wood, Thos. With, T. D. Griffin, Chicago.

What Georgia is going to do.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Tribune correspondence says: Senator Iverson says that Georgia is prepared for the dissolution of the Union, and will make the adoption of the Lecompton Constitution without condition, a strict test of her continuance. He adds that some other States are to co operate.

The Bay State Mills Affair.

BOSTON, Feb. 5.—At a meeting to-day, the stockholders of the Bay State Mills resolved to dissolve the corporation and wind up its affairs. The report of the investigating committee shows that at the time of their failure, Messrs. Lawrence, Stone & Co. owed the company $327,000, of which, with the exception of $87,000, no trace can be discovered. With regard to the amount said to have been expended in procuring the passage of the tariff of 1856, the report says it was expended without the knowledge or consent of the company.

Later from Kansas.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 6.—Leavenworth, Kansas, papers of the 30th, say that Gen. Stickley, the commissioner appointed by the President to audit claims of citizens of the Territory who sustained losses during the difficulties, has allowed claims amounting to nearly four thousand dollars.

The Board of Commissioners appointed by the Legislature, are now in session at Leavenworth engaged in taking testimony relative to the election frauds.

Counterfeiters Arrested.

ALBANY, Feb. 6.—A man named Gurney and his sister-in-law, Elvira Bates, were arrested here to-day, charged with counterfeiting United States coin. In their possession was found a quantity of counterfeits, consisting of quarter-eagle, dollar, half-dollar and 25 cent pieces, in a finished and unfinished state. After their examination before the Police Magistrate, they were held to bail. Subsequently, the U. S. Commissioner issued warrants for them, and they are now in custody of the U. S. Marshal, as also a step-daughter of Elvira Bates. The police have been on the look-out for two weeks, but until to-day were unable to obtain a clue as to where the bogus coin came from.

Destructive Fire at Detroit—Loss from $50,000 to $60,000.

A fire was discovered at about 3 o'clock yesterday morning, in the roof of the building formerly occupied by J. L. Lyell, banker which had already gained a strong headway, and, in a very short time after, accomplished an immense loss of property.

The fire undoubtedly originated in the roof, and caught from a chimney in the partition between the clothing store of Schloss & Bro., and Lyell's office. The upper story of the latter was used as a cutting room by Amberg & Co., and was burned out, with its contents, roof and all.

The fire then ran along the roof and communicated with the upper story of the building occupied on the ground floor by Schloss & Bro. and in the upper part by Campbell & Linn. This was used as a store room, and contained about $10,000 worth of dry goods, all of which were consumed. The roof also burned out, and the fire, running towards Woodward avenue, entered the upper story of the two stores occupied by Campbell & Linn. The damage by fire was light in this direction, but by water and removal will amount to not less than from $30,000 to $35,000.—Detroit Free Press, 6th.

Destructive Fire in Iowa City.

On Friday morning last, about half past two o'clock, the large warehouse of Eaton & Morse, (formerly J. Thompson & Co.,) was discovered to be on fire. An alarm was instantly sounded, but the flames had already burst through the roof, and the fire had made too much progress to be subdued by any means within reach. The long building, immediately south of the main ward-room, which was filled principally with plows, carriages, sleighs, and some pieces of machinery, was saved by throwing water upon it. The building, which was a large one, belonged to I. H. Langley & Co., of Rock Island. There was an insurance on the building of $3,000, and also the same amount on the back charges on goods, paid by the firm. The loss is variously estimated, from $75,000 to $100,000. The heaviest among the sufferers is H. G. Angle, of Cedar Rapids, who loses about $7,500 worth of goods. Most of the losses will fall upon the country merchants, west and northwest from this city.

There had been no freight taken into the warehouse since the Saturday previous to the fire, on account of the bad state of the roads, and what has arrived on consignment for them since that time, is still in the Depot.—Iowa City Republican.

The Fight in the House of Representatives.

Amid the profound regrets excited in the minds of all dispassionate men hereabouts, that the American Congress has again been made the scene of ruffianism and violence, there was no little rejoicing that at last the Republican Representatives of the North have by their prompt and energetic action in defence of a co-laborer, evinced their determination to repel assault with assault, and to return blow for blow. The gratification was heightened by the clause in the despatch received on Saturday evening, that Mr. WASHBURNE, a member from Illinois, was conspicuous for his practical assertion and defence of Northern rights, and for his heavy and well planted blows. We do not wonder that the fight occurred. It is a part of the system that was inaugurated by the repeal of the Kansas-Nebraska bill. It was put into extensive operation in Kansas. It was invoked when SUMNER was prostrated by that now dead ruffian, in the Senate Chamber, and it has been steadily pursued ever since. It has not always amounted to personal assault; but has alternated between that and a display of plantation manners or the crack of the nigger-driver's lash which is hardly less offensive. Keitt, though principal actor and though assailant in the row which our telegraphic column chronicles, has been notorious for his personal hatred of the Republican members and for his uncurbed insolence towards them. As our reader's know, he is a South Carolinian and a Disunionist, open and avowed. He was Brooks' rear guard when Sumner was bludgeoned. He was then and is now the firmest and most unrelenting hater of Freedom in either House of Congress, always insolent, always impudent, always blustering and most all of the time drunk! He probably was in the latter condition when he made his assault upon Mr. Grow. Our readers will rejoice with us that his ruffianism was promptly and fitly punished.

A little explanation of the causes which led to the biggt session, and, indirectly, to the outbreak, may not be unexceptable to our readers. The President's Message, on Friday afternoon, being under consideration, Mr. HARRIS, of Illinois, moved its reference to a "select committee of fifteen to be appointed by the "Speaker, with instructions to inquire into all "the facts connected with the formation of the "said Constitution, and all laws under which "the same originated, and into all the facts "which have transpired since the formation of 'the Constitution, and whether it is satisfactory to the legal voters of the Territory—the "committee to have power to send for persons "and papers." This was the bone of contention; and, from our despatches already published, we infer that the Republicans and anti-Lecompton Democrats co-operating, were determined to make fight on this resolution and secure its adoption, to prevent, if possible, the reference of the Message to the Committee on Territories. This latter committee is most unfairly constituted. It has six Lecomptonites and three Republicans—GROW, of Pennsylvania; GRANGER, of New York; and KNAPP, of Massachusetts. In a committee so made up, with no power to send for persons and papers, the iniquity would be speedily glossed over and reported back with a recommendation that it pass. The Republicans demanded a fair shake—a thorough exposition of the great crime—a probing of the ulcer to the bottom—that the country might be fully informed of the extent and nature of the outrage to be hereafter perpetrated. We understand, privately, that it is the intention of our friends there to have this Select Committee fairly constituded—to give the Speaker the opportunity to name it; but to reserve in their hands the right to undo his work if it be not fairly done, and elect by ballot. It was this suspected intention and the desire of the usurpers to gain time for the strengthening of their sinking members from the North, that led them into the fillibustering for defeating what was the obnoxious will of the House. It may be supposed that a contest entered into under such circumstances would become very exciting, and that during its continuance frequent displays of plantation etiquette would be made.

We have no tears to shed over what has occurred. Under like provocation, we trust that the Republicans will repeat the lesson which they taught their opponents on Saturday morning. Without a display of firmness and courage they will be bullied and badgered as they always have been heretofore. Yielding invites aggression; and frequent compliance provokes insolence. They have but to let it be understood, that the war is not to be all on one side—that blow will be returned for blow—that blood will be demanded for blood—and Congress will again become what it ought always to have been—a peaceable place of debate, in which any member may, in a proper and decorous way, speak out his convictions without being compelled to hang his life upon the meaning of his words!

Good News.

We received the following telegram from Springfield, on Saturday afternoon, viz:

SPRINGFIELD, Saturday Feb. 6.

Editors Tribune:—The Supreme Court has sustained Governor Bissell's veto of the apportionment bill. W. H. HERNDON.

This decision removes a vexed question from the politics of the State. The old apportionment law is still in force. The Governor can call an extra session between now and next November, to form a new apportionment act, or parties can go into the next legislative election under the old one. We are glad the matter is settled.

The TRIBUNE agrees with the mayor, and promises him its aid in this disreputable work. —Times.

This statement is simply false; but passing that by, we think it does not become the Times to complain of "personalities" in the Democrat, considering the example it has set that paper. Pot should not call kittle black.

INDIANA.—Ward meetings were held in Indianapolis, on Friday evening, when it was resolved to solicit subscriptions for the purpose of sustaining the Common Schools. Similar meetings are to be held at Lafayette. It is gratifying to find the people taking such a lively interest in these institutions, which are now seriously embarassed, owing to the uncalled for action of the Supreme Court of that State.

THE AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.—At the annual meeting of the First Congregational Church in Farmington, Ct., (Rev. Dr. Porter's) it was voted that the church would take up no collection for the American Tract Society the present year, and would substitute in its place a collection to the Church Building Fund, to assist in building churches at the West.

THE CORN CROP.—The papers are teeming with the most doleful accounts of the corn crop. In Ohio, certainly, more than one-half the crop will be unmerchantable. The farmers say that a great part of their corn is so badly spoiled that the hogs will not eat it. Cattle, however, are less dainty. Apprehensions are also entertained that the corn will be worthless for seed.

THE ARMY.—The Evening Post says: It is generally understood that the increase of the army is required so that the garrison of three thousand soldiers now in Kansas may be retained there. Were they to be moved forward, there would be no need of the increase.

TENNESSEE.—Resolutions instructing the Senators and requesting the Representatives from Tennessee to vote for the Lecompton Constitution, have been defeated in the Legislature of that State, by a vote of 37 to 32.

A few days ago a sail boat capsized near Toledo, Ohio, and three persons—Captain Robert Coleby, Mr. Mercer and Mr. Cook, were drowned.

Buchanan May Profit by Pierce's Disgrace.

Mr. BUCHANAN, it is said, was touched on the raw by the excuse offered for his support of the Lecompton Constitution, by Mr. DOUGLAS, in his first attack upon that infamous instrument in the Senate. The Senator forgave the President because he was out of the country when the Kansas-Nebraska bill was adopted, and, of course, could not, as clearly as those who took part in that agitation, comprehend its true import and real meaning. The polite taunt was aimed at the benevolent CASBY's noncommittalism during the discussion of that unfortunate, ill-timed, ill-advised, and eminently mischievous measure; and it had its full effect. The President's late message affords abundant evidence that he was not only out of the country when the Nebraska bill became a law; but during all the disturbances which followed that act. He must have been out of the country, out of the reach of newspapers, beyond the pale of civilization; because wherever there is light and knowledge the report of that Kansas usurpation has gone. He has, since his return, evidently read but one side of the controversy; he has listened to the story of but one party; else how can we account for the ridiculous falsification of facts and wretched perversion of history with which that important document abounds. It would not be civil to say that the President of the United States lies; we should be wanting in respect to his high place if we should make such a charge during his term of office; but the Republican papers may, without overstepping the bounds of propriety, hold up to Mr. BUCHANAN the fate of poor PIERCE. He was the first liar of any age or nation. There are those who assert that his principal occupation was inventing lies with which to cram his messages—that he sat up o' nights for that purpose. But that is evidently a mistake, because he had DOUGLAS' assistance. While he was the occupant of the White House, the journals let him off without proper punishment because he was the representative of the Republic. But we had no sooner got him down to the level of private citizenship than they broke out simultaneously and began to tell him in plain Saxon how gross his offenses had been. He had not got back to the boarding-house in Concord whence he emerged to misgovern, in his little, weak, but wicked way, this great country, before his historical reputation was established. If branding for lying had been in fashion, as it once was, he would, by this time, be so covered with scars marking the spot where the iron had been applied, that another sentence could not be executed for want of room to put the disgraceful inscription. It is the custom among the South Sea islanders to celebrate their victories by tattooing the victors. For every man slain a certain number of marks are indelibly written on the slayer's body. We have seen more than one of these savages covered from head to foot with this bloody record. Poor Pierce never killed any body with his sword. His first and only attempt in war where "they shoot bullets" was unfortunate, perhaps slightly disgraceful. He certainly fell off his horse, quite as certainly fainted after he fell; but as to the other accident which happened to him on that memorable occasion, we know nothing. We were not there to assist in putting him to bed. But though he lost that opportunity to flesh his sword and never had another, he proved to be a terrible stabber, nevertheless. His messages to Congress wherein he most malignantly and falsely misrepresented the motives and policy of the Free State men, being believed by half the country, were the cause of hundreds of deaths. We are inclined to think that every murder in the Territory ought to be charged to Pierce's account. There are enough of them, if he, after failing to get into the United States' Senate, should emigrate to the Marquesas or Owyhee, to entitle him to the most elaborate and honorable decoration in the tattooing line.

There is in the history and fate of poor Pierce much that the benevolent Casby might study with great profit. He may delude himself with the belief that the country will forgive him—excuse him, at least, as Mr. Douglas did, on account of his ignorance of current and late events. But he is certainly in error. Respect for his office may dull the points of editorial pens, and the observance of parliamentary etiquette soften down the words of the orators in Congress; but there will be a day of reckoning for him as there was for his predecessor; and unless he desires to be embalmed in infamy along side of that little New Hampshire attorney, he will hereafter, in his State papers at least, have a decent regard for the truth. As Mr. Buchanan reads the TRIBUNE, we hope our advice and warnings will not be lost.

An Embarrassing Position.

The burthen of BUCHANAN's recent message consists of fierce denunciations of the Topeka Constitution and the Topekaites on the one hand, and laudations of the Lecompton Constitution and the usurpers on the other. The people of Kansas, it seems from the message, are bent on having the Topeka Constitution. The President is equally resolved that they must take one made by the Missourians. He says that, in addition to all other means at his command, it required two thousand Federal bayonets to keep down the rebels, and to prevent them from putting their Free-soil Constitution into operation. The majority masses, he gravely informs the country, have been contumacious rebels against the rule of the minority handful, and would long ere this have "wiped them out," had it not been for the interposition of the powerful arm of the Administration. The difficulty under which the President has labored is, that there were no people in Kansas supporting the Lecompton Constitution except the Federal troops, and nobody opposed to the Topeka Constitution save the Administration. The old man has certainly been much embarrassed by the stiff-necked people of Kansas who have pertinaciously refused to abdicate their right of self-government. What is to be done about it?

A CONTROVERSY DECLINED.—The St. Louis Leader, is publishing a series of letters from "Il. Segretario," who has long been known as a correspondent of the press, addressed to Mr. Greeley, the editor of the Tribune. It seems that the writer some months since proposed a controversy with Mr. Greeley, in the columns of his own paper, upon a variety of the heresies of which Mr. G. was supposed to be the advocate. To this proposition Mr. Greeley made the following response:

NEW YORK, Tuesday, May 5, 1857.

DEAR SIR: Time was when I should have relished such a controversy as you invite, but troubles and bereavements are telling upon me, and I have a horror of being made an object of personal interest or public attention. If I were at liberty to do so, I would sell out my pecuniary interest in the Tribune, and devote the residue of my life to my books, my friends, and my little ones. As it is, I am trying to get off to Europe, so soon as may be—at least within six months—for a year of study and rest. I am, therefore, in no mood for controversy.

If I were to embark in one with you, I see that so much time would be requisite to dispel illusions and repel mistakes on your part, as to what I do believe and hold, that my first letters would inevitably be dull, however it might be with those that followed them. Yours,

HORACE GREELEY.

THE MINNESOTA FRAUDS TO BE TESTED.—Alexander Ramsey has taken the necessary steps to contest the election of Henry Sibley, as Governor of Minnesota.

If the contest is vigorously followed up, Sibley will be ousted. Ramsey received a clear majority of all the votes cast, and his opponents well know it.

The Lancaster (Pa.) Express, says that the memoranda or programme of the defence, in a recent case of a lawyer presiding in that city, was picked up in the Court room, one point of which was as follows: "Look at the woman [the defendant] and then make a speech to make her cry!" The best of the joke is, that he did it!

Grass-hoppers have lately appeared in thick swarms upon the farm of Daniel Fields, a short distance west of Oxford, Ohio. The oldest inhabitant has never seen or heard of the like—in the midst of the winter season.

IMPORTANT ARRANGEMENT.

Great Southern Route.

On the 1st March the Illinois Central Railroad Company will commence their line of first-class steamers; leaving Cairo and New Orleans every other day. This line comprises the following steamers:

Imperial	Capt. Gould
Pennsylvania	" Klinefelter
J. C. Swan	" Jones
New Falls City	" Montgomery
Aleck Scott	" Switzer
A. T. Lacey	" Rodney
City of Memphis	" Kennitz
Wm. M. Morrison	" Beffinger
New Uncle Sam	" Van Dusen
J. C. Woodruff	" Rodgers

To the traveling public these are well known boats; having always ranked as the best on the Mississippi. By this arrangement the Illinois Central Railroad will be able to ticket passengers from New Orleans to all the Eastern cities, and from the East to New Orleans. The advantage to the traveler by this arrangement will be very great where he buys a through ticket; he will be sure of a boat at Cairo, and his ticket will include meals and state rooms on the steamers. The fare from Chicago to New Orleans and vice-versa will be only $31. This line will also enable the Illinois Central Road to receipt freights through, to and from Chicago, New Orleans, Memphis, and all points on the lower Mississippi, as well as to Dubuque, Galena and the North-West. The Illinois Central now enjoys an uninterrupted line at each terminus. They will be enabled to ticket passengers from St. Paul to New Orleans by their Minnesota packet line on the upper Mississippi and their Cairo line on the lower Mississippi, making a distance of 1,900 miles. The whole fare from St. Paul to New Orleans, will not exceed $43, which includes meals and state rooms, on each line of boats. The whole time occupied in this great distance will not exceed seven to eight days, thus bringing our neighbors in Milwaukee and Lake ports within eight to ten days of New Orleans—thus offering great facilities for procuring their groceries from the South—also offering our people a winter outlet for their surplus products. The Postmaster General could not do better than to order the Great Southern and Northern mails over our great State road, and its line of steamers on the upper and lower Mississippi.

The Plethora of Gold.

The accumulation of gold in the banks throughout the country since the panic is the most remarkable financial event of the times. The aggregate is now, as made up from returns near to January 1st, and since that time, fully eighty-five millions of dollars, or twenty-seven millions more than at the first of January, 1857; then the total in all the banks of the United States, as made up at the Treasury Department, was $58,350,000; now, exclusive of States reporting eight millions of specie in January, 1857, the footings are $76,500,000, all from recently published returns. The returns not here included are not accessible at the moment, but we may be safe in supposing that an increase, rather than a deficiency in the specie totals, has been realized there also. The whole probably exceeds $86,000,000 now held by the banks, exclusive of California, an increase of $28,000,000 on the high sum reached a year since during a period of full prosperity in every department of business.

The result nearest in the future is a rapid decline in the price of money. Gold is so far in excess of present wants that it rapidly and constantly accumulates. Every city has a rising figure for the specie item, and there is no immediate prospect of a drain setting in abroad, for the like accumulation is taking place in England and France. At London the use of money has already fallen to 4 and 4 1-2 per cent. with little or no custom at the bank, which is not yet reduced so low, and it is anticipated that a decline to 2 1-2 per cent. will soon follow, as has already been the case at that singular theatre of the present panics on a specie basis, Hamburg. To what uses is this excess of gold to be put? Business must either largely expand, employing twice the sum now employed, or gold must decline so much as to become a drug in the market. Strange as this prospect would appear to people fresh from the insane struggle for gold which marked the late panic, is the next and certain phase of financial development.—Phil. North American.

"To what use is this excess of gold to be put?" asks the American. The question is easily and briefly answered: Drive out of circulation, by a law of Congress which shall tax them out of existence, all the miserable paper apologies for, and representatives of money, of a less denomination than twenty dollars, and put that "excess" of gold into circulation among the people. Let us have gold to do our shopping with, gold to pay for what we buy at the market-house, gold for all the ordinary money transactions of an amount less than the sum stated. The demand for coin, if Congress should pass such a law, would absorb these idle millions and much more besides; and the law itself would, more effectually than any other one measure, counter-check the efforts of our rag money makers to get rich by robbing the people little by little, and operate as a most effectual protection against the efforts of counterfeiters and swindlers of that sort who dignify their stealing with the name of banking. With three hundred millions of gold in the country, what is the use of being longer swindled with small bank notes? To this question we have never heard a satisfactory reply.

CURRENCY AT DAVENPORT.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Feb., 5, 1858.

Editors Chicago Tribune: The financial embarrassments under which our citizens in general, and our merchants in particular, are groaning, are, I am sorry to say, getting no better; but, on the contrary, are growing worse and worse every day. Our merchants have sold their goods, and what have they got for them? Shinplasters; and this trash is not convertable, only at such a shave as will destroy all profits, if at all. The time is near at hand when they should be making preparations to go East and purchase goods; but their stocks which they purchased in the Fall are not yet paid for, nor is there any possibility of doing so, so long as we are oppressed with these rotten rags which are almost worthless. I can but shudder when I consider the condition in which this community has been placed.

You will ask, why don't our merchants and business men refuse to take this wild-cat? I can only answer that there is not a sufficient number that dare take a stand in the matter. Cook & Sargent have, heretofore, been considered omnipotent in monetary affairs, and to refuse countenance to their "charitable operations," would be high-handed treason. But they do talk in private about the matter, and begin to inquire what they are to do, now that Messrs. Cook & Sargent have failed to make their promises good. They

"Damn with faint praise; assent with civil leer;
And without sneering, teach the rest to sneer."

The crisis, with us, has not yet come. Our people have borne every thing, and in return received Shinplasters, which bear the worthless "promises to pay" of Cook & Sargent. That firm cannot redeem their issues, but still continue to crowd them upon the public. They are selling no exchange of any consequence; and what little there is picked up upon the street costs at from 15 to 20 per cent. The merchants of Rock Island have, I am credibly informed, put Florence down to 80 cents on the dollar, and our merchants should do the same, for that is all it is worth—and more.

There is no wheat or produce, to any amount, coming into town, for the farmers are afaid to handle such trash as is here issued. You have completely silenced the Gazette upon Illinois currency. That sheet has not a word to say, only to revile the upright and true course which the Democrat is taking in opposition to wild-cat swindlers. I have charity for the editors to believe they do not endorse a word they say in reference to it, but they work for pay—sacrifice the true interests of our city for the sake of acquiring a few hundred dollars of Cook & Sargent's trash.

I trust you will continue to direct a portion of your attention to our difficulties; and rest assured you will have the hearty commendation of this community. * *

Canadian Seat of Government.

The Toronto Globe announces the selection of the town of Ottowa by the Imperial authorities, as the future seat of government for Canada, and expresses much indignation thereat. Toronto, Montreal and Quebec are all laid on the shelf by this decision, and the Capitol transferred to a little place numbering a population of only 7,000. The Globe says:

"We look upon the idea of Parliament meeting at Quebec with the greatest aversion, and yet we see very little reason to prefer Ottawa. Although within the boundary of Upper Canada it is composed of a population very different from the other cities of the Western Province. The total population in 1851 was 7,760, and of these 4,798—nearly five-eights of the whole—were Roman Catholics—of whom about half were of French origin, and the remainder Irish. But this is not all. Ottawa is surrounded by a population very similar to that which is found within the city, and it is even less enlightened and progressive than the census returns indicate. A lumbering country never possesses either an educated or an orderly people, and although large parts of the Ottawa district are now agricultural in their character, the population are still affected by the cirumstances of the early settlement. As to political principles, or even knowledge, nothing of the kind appears to exist on the Ottawa."

ARRIVAL OF THE EDINBURGH.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF NAPOLEON.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.

The screw steam ship Edinburgh, CUMMINGS, Commander, from Glasgow, on the 17th ult., arrived at this port last evening. She brings Glasgow papers of the afternoon of the 16th of January, containing a few hours later intelligence from London and Paris than that received by the Canada.

The only fresh news brought by this arrival is derived from telegrams to the evening Glasgow papers. It consits chiefly in particulars of the late attempted assassination of the Emperor Napoleon.

In addition to what is already known, it is ascertained that five minutes before the attempt, M. Pietre, Chief of Police, had arrested, close to the Opera, an exile of 1852, who had returned to Paris under a false name. On his person were found a grenade, a revolver and a poinard. The police of Paris were forewarned on Thursday by the Belgian police of the attempt of the assassination. The sixty persons who are wounded are in a dangerous condition. Some have been removed to the prison Mazes. The arrests are multiplying hourly.

Just as the carriage drew up to the peristyle of the Opera House, a large hand-grenade, thrown, it is supposed, from one of the windows opposite, fell upon the pavement within a few inches of the vehicle, burst with terible force, and flung deadly projectiles in all directions. Two or three seconds after, another shell of the same kind struck the roof of the Imperial carriage. Before the Emperor and Empress had time to alight, a third quickly followed, launched with deadly aim, and bursting as effectively as the former two. This closed the murderous campaign.

The following statements and reports are from the correspondence and journals received from Paris on the morning of the 16th ult:

"The gas-pipes running along the facade of the Opera House, were blown off by the explosion of the projectiles, and for a time the street was in darkness.

The street in which the Opera House is situated would have been filled by the crowd, but a squadron of mounted Paris Guards soon galloped up from their barracks. None excepting the residents were allowed to enter the street.

At the barracks on the Quay d'Orsay the cavalry, armed to the teeth, mounted their horses, and remained ready for any emergency.

Four projectiles were flung under the carriage, but one did not explode. It was intended that twenty should be used.

Only one Frenchman, it is said, is implicated."

The Paris correspondent of the London Herald telegraphs on the 16th: "As the Imperial carriage drove up to the main entrance of the theatre, and as one of the footman was in the act of opening the door, three percussion shells filled with fulminating powder, was flung from the top of one of the houses opposite among the cortege, and exploded on reaching the ground. The first fell just in front of the carriage, killing one horse, wounding the footman, and piercing the hat of the Emperor about an inch above his head. The other shells burst among the crowd and escort. An eye-witness says there was an interval of a few seconds between the second and third explosions. The Emperor had alighted; he then carried the Empress in his arms to the steps of the Opera House, but scarcely had he do so when a third shell burst under the carriage and shattered it to pieces. The houses opposite were immediately taken possession of by the police, and in one several Italians were arrested—one having a loaded revolver. The shells must have been large, containing a great quantity of gunpowder, as the report broke all the windows on the opposite side of the street. It is supposed the attempt was believed certain of success, for the death of the Emperor was a current report at the time of the outrage. At the opening of the Bourse, the cry of "Vive l'Empereur!" was universal.

Next day the Emperor and Empress rode through the most public streets of Paris in an open carriage drawn by two horses, without attendants escort or guards. They were loudly cheered and greeted with great enthusiasm. There is no question but Napoleon is becoming immensely popular with the French people.

Gen. Wilson's Speech.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Feb. 3, 1858.

In the Senate to-day, Mr. Wilson of Mass., spoke for an hour and a half; making a thorough refutation of the fallacies and misstatements of the President's Message in regard to Kansas; warmly and successfully defending the people of Lawrence against the charge of turbulence and rebellion, preferred against them by Mr. Iverson.

We give a sketch of the speech:

The President's Kansas Message was then taken up:

Mr. Wilson (Mass.) attacked the President's positions, stating that the history in the Message was a stupendous, a gigantic misrepresentation of the affairs of Kansas. The President was not in the country when the Nebraska bill passed. He was nominated for the Presidency for that reason, in order that he might be able to prove an alibi. He denied the statement in the Message, that there has been a party in the Territory setting at defiance the Constitution or the laws of the land. There had been no such party or set of men there. While giving his version of the history of Kansas affairs, he said that Governor Walker went there with the object of dividing the Free State men, and of uniting the Free State Democrats with the Pro-Slavery men so as to make it a Pro-Slavery Democratic State. That was his mission, and no man could have labored more faithfully or more efficiently to accomplish that object. He alluded to the remark made the other day by Mr. Iverson, that "Lawrence was a sink of folly, filth and falsehood," and said that there was not a town in the United States of the same population, that contained more of individual worth or personal character and intelligence. There were more college graduates there than in any other town of its population in the country. It was a law-abiding and liberty-loving population. He denounced the Lecompton Constitution, saying that he would rather have the Constitution with Slavery than without it, because with Slavery it might be abolished, and without it it would be perpetuated. It was a perversion of fact and truth, in the President or any one else, to charge that the people of Kansas, by voting for the election of officers under the Lecompton Constitution, intended in any way to give their sanction to it. They went to the ballot-box on the 4th of January to beat out forever that Constitution. They knew that the people were against it by an overwhelming majority of five or six to one. They meant to overthrow Calhoun and his corrupt minions in the Territory, who have violated justice and stained their names by fraud, outrages and murders. The only way to do that was to elect men pledged against that Constitution, and who would come here, as they have, to ask Congress and the country to reject it as a fraud on the people of Kansas. And yet this act, fairly and openly proclaimed to the country and the world the President misrepresents and misstates. We have had enough of this petty quibbling in Congress, without expecting it at the other end of the avenue. We have had the pleading of technicalities of all sorts which could be brought into a great question of this kind; and we have had all these outrages in Kansas, kept under color of law. Tyrants always rule under color of law. Instead of asking what is the will of the people of Kansas, we have had Senators and Representatives, and now have the President, quibbling on the technicalities and forms, by which the substance is to be lost to the people. Mr. Wilson paid a high compliment to Mr. Douglas for his manly advocacy of the great principle of the Nebraska bill, in opposition to the dictates of the Slave Power. For this the Senator from Illinois had been called a "Black Republican." Any man was so called who refused to support this last iniquity, this last crowning act of infamy. No matter if his whole life had been devoted to the interests of Slavery, if he paused now and refused to assent to these palpable frauds, he was to be crushed out of the party.

LIQUID GLUE.—This is one of the most convenient appendages of domestic life which modern ingenuity has devised. Every careful housekeeper will prize it as a convenient assistant in cobbling up a broken chair, or in replacing a bit of loose veneering on the furniture. Indeed, for all purposes where it will not come in contact with water, this glue may be used with safety. But few of the many who would like to have it, know how to make it. To prepare it, take glue of good quality, and dissolve it in as small a quantity of hot water as possible; then, while yet hot, remove it from the fire and dilute it to the proper degree of thinness by adding alcohol, after which it should be bottled and the mouth of the bottle kept covered with a piece of India rubber, or anything else that will exclude the air. Alcohol will preserve the glue made in this way for many years, keeping it from putrefaction in summer, and from freezing in winter. In cold weather it requires only a little warming to make it ready for use. This convenient article has been in use in England for many years, but has never been extensively known in this country.

GOOD.—A religious paper takes advantage of the flash style of advertising adopted by publishers, and thus announces a "sensation" work which may have been heard of by most readers:

FOR a story of thrilling interest read the BIBLE.

IF you would know how much safer it is to act from principle than from expediency, read the BIBLE.

NO better book can be taken with you to the country than the BIBLE.

HAVE you read

"This Book, these sentences, these lines?
Each word and letter
To me are better
Than chains of pearls, and golden mines."

If not, you have lost pleasure and profit.

Counting Noses—The Cabinet Electioneering.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4, 1858.

The South American Members of Congress held a caucus last evening. They are mostly anti-Lecompton in opinion, but in voting will probably not dare to separate themselves from the South.

The Douglas Democrats are in caucus tonight. They claim two votes more than they got on the question of adjournment yesterday.

The Administration Democrats are busily spreading the report that, when the Lecompton question comes to a vote, enough Republicans will absent themselves to let the measure be carried. The report is a stupid invention to work on the supposed fears and jealousies of the Douglas Democrats.

Members of the Cabinet were visible on the floor of the House to-day, manipulating the weak brethren, as in the times of the Nebraska bill.

No purpose is entertained by the Administration of recalling the troops from Utah, or of negotiating with Brigham Young, unless ordered by Congress so to do. On the contrary, the War Department is actively engaged in shaping its organization, with a view to a demonstration early in the spring, for which the Kansas troops will be employed, whether the Lecompton instrument pass or not.

The Administration confidently counts upon uniting the whole Southern vote in the House for Lecompton, with the exception of three Americans.

No committee of Democratic members called on the President to protest against the recommendations of the Message as has been stated.

[Special Dispatch to the New York Times.]

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Feb. 4.

The Administration is evidently alarmed at the tactics of the opposition of Lecompton,—consequently three members of the Cabinet—Cobb, Brown and Black—were in the House all day electioneering industriously. Mr. Kibben's defection brought Black to his side for two hours.

It is not probable that Kibben, by his vacillation will confess himself wrong in the deliberate conclusions of his own judgment, to oblige Black. Besides the Pacific Railroad is more important to California than another Slave State, and Kibben is not disposed to sacrifice his influence with those who always sustain that measure by going with those who always oppose it.

[Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.]

It is calculated, upon a close count of the House of Representatives, that there will be a majority of eight for the admission of Kansas with the Lecompton Constitution. A leading Southern Know Nothing member expresses his conviction that the Southern members of his party will give a solid vote for it. Southern members of the extreme school, who did not recently look upon the Administration with too much favor, now express themselves cordially in its support. The special message is producing a revolution in sentiment. Mr. Douglas, in a caucus of the Senators last night, showed evident signs of repentance. He was quite in a state of happy acquiescence.

The Washington States is significantly silent on the message. It makes no comment.

M'lle Rachel had a narrow escape of being buried alive. Eleven hours after the telegram reached Paris of her death, she was still breathing. The operator who came to embalm her, felt the carotid artery, and was startled to find pulsation. The truth was known at once, and she only died in the evening.

NEW LAW BOOK.

Bishop on Criminal Law—Vol. II,

THIS DAY PUBLISHED BY

LITTLE, BROWN & CO.,

112 Washington Street, Boston.

COMMENTARIES ON THE CRIMINAL LAW,

By Joel Prentiss Bishop, Esq.

Vol. II., containing the Law of Specific Offences, Alphabetically arranged. 8vo. $6.00.

NOTICES OF VOL. I.

"I have made a general examination of Mr. Bishop's new book on Criminal Law, and think it a work of much interest and much value. It is full of learning and acuteness, ample and trustworthy in its citations of authorities, and skillful and fortunate in its discernment and arrangement of the principles which the authorities establish or limit. * * I do not know any recent work which more happily avoids the extreme of assuming to codify or originate law on the one hand, and that of huddling together—without method, without philosophy, and without style—a miscellany of cases and sayings on the other."—[Hon. Rufus Choate.

"The work of Bishop is the first scientific work of America on Criminal Law; but it is equally valuable and worthy of study to the lawyers of every country.

"The principles laid down by Mr. Bishop are really just and worthy to be adopted by all scientific men. I find on every page of his work profundity of research united with perspicuity of explanation, and that practical sense so peculiar to American and English jurists."—[Prof. Mittermair, of Heidelberg.

"The Commentaries on Criminal Law, by Mr. Bishop appear to us to have been executed in a masterly manner, and in this volume the Principles of this branch of Law have been treated on a broad and comprehensive plan."—[London Law Mag. and Review.

"We look upon this treatise as a valuable addition to our legal literature, and as a credit to its author."—[Law Reporter.

"His Commentaries on the Criminal Law will greatly enhance his reputation and illustrate his name. He must henceforth be regarded as one of the first of legal authors in this or any other country. Combining, with the most laborious and patient research, a philosophical mind, an acute analysis, an unlimited power of condensation, a clear statement of principles, and a fresh and perspicuous style, he has made a book of extraordinary merit, evincing extraordinary mental ability, and destined to hold in legal bibliography an extraordinary rank."—[St. Louis Republican.

Notice.

THE PAST EIGHTEEN MONTHS' EXPERIENCE has given the citizens of Chicago ample proof that the soap process of cleansing gentlemen's clothes will not do, as practised by those inexperienced in the business. The fact of the matter is this, that, unless your coats, vests and pants, are dyed, cleansed and neatly repaired, by men skilled in their vocation, they had far better never be touched at all; but when they are operated upon by experienced workmen, it is certainly a great saving to the community at large, at the same time conducing much to their bodily comfort. Now, gentlemen, all of you who know any thing, know enough by this time to be fully convinced that the cheapest and reliable source of having your coats, vests and pants cleaned, dyed, repaired, and made to look like new, is by COOK & McLAIN'S Chemical process. It certainly does remove every spot of grease, paint, wax, and tar, together with all other blemishes and impurities to which such garments are liable. The spots are warranted not to reappear, as a beautiful finished lustre is put on as a first new.

Gentlemen, call at COOK & McLAIN'S, and look at specimens of their Goal Dressing. If they fail to please you, no charge will be made.

Remember, COOK & McLAIN, 96 Dearborn street, south of the Post office. au10-'56-ly-is

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PERIODICAL PILLS

For Females.

ARE INFALLIBLE FOR REMOVING STOPPAGES OR IRREGULARITIES OF THE MENSES. These Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor in his practice for many years both in France and America, with unparalleled success in every case. He is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as a preventive to those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family.

Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any injury to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Directions accompanying each box. Price $1.

Sold at retail by Penton, Fisher & Co., corner Lake and Dearborn sts., Chicago; Gale Brothers, 202 Randolph st.; Breck & Paine, corner Randolph & State sts.; H. B. Hooker, 56 West Randolph st. THOMAS LORD, (Successor to Bay & Baldwin), 48 Lake st., PENTON & JOHNSON, 151 South Water street, to whom all orders must be addressed. They will furnish dealers and agents with circulars and show-cards, and the Pills at proprietor's prices.

N. B.—Ladies! by inclosing $1 to either of the above agents at the Chicago P. O., can have Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills sent by return mail (confidentially) to any part of the city or country. See that the signature of J. Duponco is upon each box—you will then obtain a medicine that can be relied upon.

AN INFALLIBLE REMEDY FOR THE

FEVER AND AGUE,

And the Various Forms of

BILLIOUS DISEASES,

Intermittent; Remittent, Chill Fever and DUMB AGUE,

Having their origin in Malaria of very fertile or marshy districts.

PREPARED BY DR. S. SAWYER, AND sold by SAWYER, PAIGE & CO., Druggists and Chemists, 74 Lake street, Chicago.

This remedy is prepared entirely from vegetable substances, and contains no mercury, arsenic, or anything that can prove injurious to the system. Its effects are to remove the derangement and tone, well adapted to restore the healthy action of the stomach, whose functions are so generally impaired in this class of diseases.

Quinine and other tonics, serve only in many cases to break the chills, but do not remove the disease from the liver and other organs, implicated on which the chill and fever depend. Those who use the "Fluid Extract of Bark" will find it particularly in regions where physicians cannot be readily consulted, which combines all the qualities suited to the treatment of these maladies.

Hundreds of testimonials in regard to the efficacy of this medicine from persons respectability, have been received by the proprietor—but he deems it unnecessary to publish them. Price $1 per bottle: 6 bots for $5

Special Notices.

There is an article selling throughout the country that has attained the widest celebrity ever known as a remedy for Liver Complaints. We have reference to Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, that has performed cures almost too great to believe, were it not for the undoubted evidence that accompany the testimonials. It is, in truth, the greatest remedy known for Dyspepsia, Jaundice, or a general debility that so often baffles the skill of our most eminent physicians.

Dr. Sanford has been for a long time one of the eminent physicians of New York, and it is said most of his cases were treated with the Invigorator with such invariable success that he has been induced to offer it as a family medicine, and let the world have the benefit of his discovery. If those who are troubled with debility, head-ache, languor, or slow, lingering fever, will try a bottle, we think they might save physicians' bills, and days, perhaps years of suffering. (See advertisement.) fe2-dim

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters correct the appetite, imparts a tone to the system, force off the bile and all impure secretions, regulate the bowels, give us strength of body and vigor of mind. For Dyspepsia and dyspeptic symptoms, they are the wonder of the afflicted. In all cases of flatulency, dizziness, prostration, great fatigue and general inability, it is surprising how soon the patient finds relief. No family can afford to be without Hostetter's Bitters. They require no spirits. Sold in full quart bottles by Druggists and dealers generally. fe2-d&w2w

$1,000 REWARD.—Having purchased of Dr. Tilton (son-in-law of Dr. James) the only recipe which Dr. James uses in preparing the Extract of Cannabis Indica, for the cure of Consumption, Asthma, Colds, Coughs and General Debility, and having greatly improved the same by incorporating with it other potent vegetable agents, especially such as will furnish a more speedy relief and cure in all those difficulties, as well as in cases of Bronchial affections, I now offer the above reward to any one who will show me a case that cannot be cured by the preparation now made at No. 141 State street, Chicago, in a more speedy and permanent manner than by the old mixture. I have both on hand. DR. G. S. GILBERT, 141 State street, Chicago.

N. B.—Dr. James is fully satisfied that such is the case, and hence it is that he is making such a fuss in the papers; but all can satisfy themselves by trying only one bottle, and if it is not what it is represented to be, the money will be returned; and if that is not sufficient to show all that I am making a better article, I will, when desired, send with each bottle (free of charge) Dr. James' own recipe, with directions as used by himself. ja28-2w-186 DR. GILBERT.

TO CURE A COLD—A RECIPE THAT RARELY EVER FAILS.—Now, while winter, with its burthen of Colds and Coughs, is with us, we think a remedy that will relieve such visitations should be highly prized, and all who know the worth of this remedy will do as we do—prize it doubly. Take a double dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and it will give greater relief than any other medicine we ever tried, for we have rarely to repeat the dose to be entirely free from cough, and as soon as the lungs have time to throw off the collected matter, the cure is complete. As a family medicine, for the cure of Bowel Diseases, Worms, Derangement of the Stomach and Liver, we can recommend it knowingly. (See advertisement.)

LEA & PERRINS' WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE. The attention of Hotel Keepers, Proprietors of Eating Houses, Caterers for Clubs, Mess-rooms, and Private Families is commended to a trial of LEA & PERRINS' famous Worcestershire Sauce. The numerous "Imitations" on both sides of the Atlantic speak loudly of its merits; and the fact that it received the only Medal awarded to foreign Sauce at the New York Exhibition attests the estimation in which it is held by those selected with special reference to their ability to judge of the quality of similar articles of table use. And being the most popular Sauce in the market unprincipled parties are offering for sale spurious Sauce by slightly varying the spelling of "LEA & PERRINS," only proprietors of the Genuine Sauce.

OLD TIMES AND NEW.

[We copy the following lines, read at the New England Society's Festival at New York, December 22d, 1846, by Allen C. Spooner, of Boston, from the Courier:]

'Twas in my easy chair at home,
About a week ago,
I sat and puffed my light cigar
As usual, you must know.

I mused upon the Pilgrim flock
Whose luck it was to land
Upon almost the only rock
Among the Plymouth sand.

In my mind's eye, I saw them leave
Their weather-beaten bark—
Before them spread the wintry wilds,
Behind rolled ocean dark.

Alone that little handful stood,
While savage foes lurked nigh,
Their creed and watchword, "Trust in God,
And keep your powder dry."

Imagination's pencil then
That first stern winter painted,
When more than half their number died,
And stoutest spirits fainted.

A tear unbidden filled one eye,
My smoke had filled the other;
One sees strange sights at such a time,
Which quite the senses bother.

I knew I was alone—but lo!
(Let him who dares, deride me)—
I looked, and drawing up a chair,
Down sat a man beside me.

His dress was ancient, and his air
Was somewhat strange and foreign;
He civilly returned my stare,
And said, "I'm Richard Warren!"

"You'll find my name among the list
Of hero, sage, and martyr,
Who, in the Mayflower's cabin, signed
The first New England charter.

"I could some curious facts impart—
Perhaps some wise suggestions;
But then, I'm bent on seeing sights,
And running o'er with questions."

"Ask on," said I, "I'll do my best
To give you information,
Whether of private men you ask,
Or our renowned nation."

Says he, "First tell me what is that
In yon compartment narrow,
Which seems to dry my eye-balls up,
And scorch my very marrow."

His finger pointed to the grate—
Said I—"That's Lehigh coal,
Dug from the earth"—he shook his head—
"It is, upon my soul!"

I then took up a bit of stick,
One end was black as night,
And rubbed it quick across the hearth,
When lo, a sudden light!

My guest drew back, uprolled his eyes,
And strove his breath to catch—
"What necromancy's that," he cried—
Quoth I, "a friction match."

Upon a pipe, just overhead,
I turned a little screw,
When forth with instantaneous flash,
Three streams of lightning flew.

Uprose my guest—"Now heaven save me,"
Aloud he shouted, then,
"Is that hell-fire?" "'Tis gas," said I,
"We call it hydrogen."

Then forth into the fields we strolled,
A train came thundering by
Drawn by the snorting iron steed,
Swifter than eagles fly.

Rumbled the wheels, the whistle shrieked,
Far streamed the smoky cloud,
Echoed the hills, the valleys shook,
The flying forests bowed.

Down on his knees, with hands upraised
In worship, Warren fell—
"Great is the Lord our God," cried he—
"He doeth all things well.

"I've seen his chariots of fire,
The horsemen, too, thereof;
O, may I ne'er provoke his ire,
Nor at His threatenings scoff."

"Rise up, my friend, rise up," said I,
"Your terrors all are vain;
That was no chariot of the sky,
'Twas the New York mail train."

We stood within a chamber small—
Men came the news to know—
From Worcester, Springfield and New York,
Texas and Mexico.

It came—it went—silent; but sure—
He stared, smiled, burst out laughing;
"What witchcraft's that?" "It's what we call Magnetic telegraphing."

Once more we stepped into the street;
Said Warren, "What is that
Which moves along across the way,
As softly as a cat?"

"I mean the thing upon two legs,
With feathers on its head—
A monstrous hump below its waist,
Large as a feather bed."

"It has the gift of speech, I hear,
But sure it can't be human?"
"My amiable friend," said I—
"That's what we call a woman."

"Eternal powers! it cannot be,"
Sighed he with voice that faltered;
"I loved the women in my day,
But, oh! they're strangely altered."

I showed him then a new machine
For turning eggs to chickens—
A labor-saving hennery,
That beats the very dickens.

Thereat, he strongly grasped my hand,
And said, "'Tis plain to see
This world is so turned upside down,
'Twill never do for me.

"Your telegraphs, your railroad trains,
Your gas lights, friction matches—
Your hump-backed women, rocks for coal,
Your thing which chickens hatches—

"Have turned the earth so upside down,
No peace is left within it"—
Then whirling round upon his heel,
He vanished in a minute.

Forthwith, my most veracious pen
Wrote down, what I had heard,
And here dressed up in doggerel rhyme,
You have it, word for word.

A Persevering Woman—Walking 400 Miles for a Husband.

[From the Bucyrus (Ohio) Journal.]

Near Norwich, Chenango county, New York, lived two families of well to do farmers, between whom there existed as bitter a feud as ever raged between the Montagues and Capulets. The heads of the families consumed the bulk of the time in annoying each other, and the children on both sides, with two exceptions, inherited their parents' hatred, and lost no opportunity of gratifying it.

These exceptions were the oldest son of the one, and the second daughter of the other, who, seeing no reason why they should hate each other in imitation of their parents, became desperately enamored. The parents soon discovered how matters stood, and of course were enraged. John and Mary were both severely reprimanded, and charged particularly to think no more of each other. But who ever heard of such a charge being obeyed? The more they were told not to, the more they did. Seeing that easy measures would not answer, the parents of John sent him to an uncle in this county. Mary's progenitors locked her up for a week to keep her from following him.

One night in November last, the whole family joined in reviling and abusing him. Not a word did she say in reply, but her ashy face and bloodless lips, showed that something was brewing. As soon as the family had retired, she put on her bonnet and shawl, and going down from her room, noiselessly unlocked the door, and walked out into the darkness. Half crazed she had thought of nothing but escape, and had not provided herself with any necessaries for the long journey she had undertaken. She knew where John was, and she determined to reach him. By daylight, she had achieved ten miles. At a farm house she procured breakfast, and making inquiries, set out again. Day after day she traveled, eating and sleeping at farm houses. Occasionally, a charitable wagoner would carry her a few miles, and then again for days she was obliged to walk.

Finally, completely worn out, she arrived at her destination. She found John, told him her troubles and trials, and put herself under his protection. John, like a sensible man, posted to Bucyrus, got out the papers, and married her off hand. To end the story as fictitious ones are always concluded, they should have gone back, fallen on their knees and implored the forgiveness of their parents. But neither of them were romantic. They felt that they had done nothing to be forgiven, and had no particular desire to see the faces of those who had abused them. So, instead of going east, they went west, and are by this time settled in Wisconsin.

Protest against the Red Petticoat.

A Boston Correspondent of the New York Times breaks out thus:

Red petticoats are rare here. There may be some about, as well as round, but I have not even the suspicion of one. They'll be visible in abundance, perhaps, if you gentlemen of the press continue to call loudly for them, for does woman live for anything but to please man? Candidly, I do not think this preference for red to white is a good one. York is better than Lancaster in this matter. What Hawthorne says about stockings is quite applicable to petticoats, the two articles being so closely connected. A white stocking, he says, is infinitely more effective than a black one. So of petticoats; a white one is far better than a red one, especially if the dress be black. True, a red one is better as a defence against mud, but then there is no occasion for making a mud-gatherer of the petticoat, be it of what color it may. Let the thing be shortened, and men will not complain. Then red petticoats belong to old women, and, if you have studied statistics of the kind, you must have noted that young women rarely make use of red flannel for any purpose; and though the flannel petticoat is not so common as it used to be in the days of our grandmammas, the prejudice against color will be found strong in spite of the difference of material. Besides, would it be possible to wear a red petticoat with a white dress? and is not white the common dress of young women during most of the year? Red, indeed, matches badly with most other colors, and particularly in the position of the petticoat, which being a "garment of mystical sublimity," ought to be perfect. I incline to think that the Reds will be as unsuccessful here as the Reds have been in Europe. By the way, isn't the red petticoat Le Spectre Rouge, about which M. Cæsar Romieu talked so funnily a few years ago, calling upon the Czar to "put it down?" It is certain that all the armies in the world have thus far not been able to put the petticoat down. THYME.

DANIEL AND NOAH WEBSTER UNITED.—At a meeting of the friends and believers in spiritualism, held in this town not long since, among the "relics" of the departed, the spirit of Daniel rapped itself into notice. The great statesman, through the medium—a gray-headed believer—acknowledged that he had been a great man, and that he had committed many errors in the flesh. He had made mistakes in his social life, in his diplomatic career, in his political course, and there were some, he was sorry to say, in his Dictionary.—Northampton (Mass.) Gazette.

Worth Thinking About.

Prof. Henry, of the Smithsonian Institute, under the head of "Meteorology in its connection with Agriculture," has stated a number of facts, in the form of a report, which will make a deep impression at Washington when they come to be known and understood. This department of his report is very elaborate, and embraces a number of sub-divisions, such as the "Physical Geography of the United States," "The Winds of North America," "Currents of the Ocean," "The Results of the Astronomical Condition," &c., all highly interesting, but which perhaps would not interest your readers in this form. The induction from his facts, however, may be stated in a simple manner. The result is, that the entire region of the United States west of the 98th degree west longitude (say the western boundary of Minnesota), with the exception of a small portion of Western Texas and the narrow border along the Pacific (including California), is a sterile waste, of comparatively little value, and which can never be valuable to the agriculturist. This statement will astonish the reader when we direct his attention to the fact that the line of Prof. Henry, which extends southward from Lake Winnipeg to the Mexican Gulf, will divide the surface of the United States into two nearly equal parts.

If this be true, what becomes of the great national drama to be played on the Northwestern Empire of the American Continent, of which politicians have harangued and poets have sung? The intense heat and extreme dryness of this region, which will make the Great American Plains a barren waste forever, and caused, to a large extent, according to Prof. Henry's theory, by the fact that the returning trade winds, sweeping over the elevated masses of the Rocky Mountains, are deprived of their moisture; in other words, the heated air which ascends at the equator, saturated with moisture it has abstracted in its passage over the ocean, after depositing a portion of its vapor in the tropics at the "rainy seasons," is farther dessicated by the ridges and mountains which it meets, the vapor being condensed on the windward side by the cold due to the increased vertical height, and it finally passes over and strikes the plains as dry as a sponge which has been thoroughly squeezed. Without moisture here can be no fertility, and a great portion of this wilderness, according to Prof. Henry, is as irredeemably barren, for the purposes of agriculture, as the deserts of Africa. True or false, the theory is worthy of attention.

A LARGE CAVE EXPLORED.—A friend in Ohio county writes us an account of the partial exploration of a remarkable cave in that county. Reports made by some boys, who had ventured into the cave, known as Spring Cave, near Point Pleasant, on Green River, prompted the writer and several other gentlemen to make an exploration of it. An entrance to the cave was effected through a narrow passage, about thirty feet long, which opened into an egg-shaped room, some thirty feet long, and fifteen feet high. The exploring party visited, through various passages, five other rooms, in one of which was a small set-off, as if made by man, and on it were three books and several letters, none of which the gentlemen could make out. They also found in this room silvery-looking metal, that had been run into lumps. In another room they found human bones. It is the intention of the gentlemen engaged in this exploration to make a more thorough investigation of this cave. Our correspondent thinks it will prove to be as extensive a cave as the Mammoth.—Louisville Journal.

CRINOLINE ON SKATES.—The ladies of Northampton, Mass., have adopted a plan for improving their complexion, which is far more efficacious than any artificial cosmetic. Despising the conventionalism of fashionable society, which makes romping rude, and exercise unbecoming to females, they have strapped on the skates, and given themselves up to the fullness of out door enjoyment, and the promotion of their health and vigor.

On Thursday afternoon, a young lady and gentleman skated from Bangor to Hamden, Maine, on a trial of speed. The Whig says "the young gentleman had the longest legs but the lady spread most canvass, and the wind being fair and fresh, she beat him by 2½ minutes, and the feat was performed in half an hour. So exhausted were the parties, however, and so strong the head wind to skate back, that they were brought to the city in a carriage.

A SECOND DANIEL COME TO JUDGMENT.—Mr. Ridgeway, the editor of the Richmond Whig, who complains so bitterly at being assaulted and beaten by Mr. Wise, appears to have a short memory. If we remember rightly he thought the attack on Mr. Sumner by Mr. Brooks was a very chivalrous act, but now when Mr. Wise comes into his sanctum and batters him over the head and shoulders with a walking stick, he thinks the act places Mr. Wise outside of the code of honor. It is astonishing what a difference it makes whether it is his own head or somebody else's head that is smashed.—Buffalo Express.

Opticians.

IMPROVE YOUR EYESIGHT.

AT THE OPTICAL ESTABLISHMENT AND EYE INFIRMARY, 37 - Clark Street, Room No. 2, Up stairs. - 37 CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

To those Suffering from Bad Eyesight.

DR. ROSENBERG, OPTICIAN AND OCULIST, (late of Paris, France,) calls the attention of the public, and in particular of those whose eyesight is weak and failing, to his Newly Improved French Crystal & Brazilian Pebble SPECTACLES.

The clearness and perfection of these Glasses, and the scientific principle on which they are ground, are such that they never fail to relieve persons with sore or inflamed eyes, preserve and strengthen the eyesight of the old and feeble, as well as of the young, and enable persons of all ages to read and write, or to employ themselves constantly upon fine and close work, without injury to their sight.

Improved Eye Glasses, Spy Glasses, Magnifying and Opera Glasses, Microscopes, Telescopes, Thermometers, etc., always kept on hand in great variety.

Advice and consultation on diseased eyes, free.

Short or long sighted persons residing at a distance requiring Spectacles, and not being able to attend personally, can be suited with them, safely and quickly, through the mail or by express, by forwarding to me answers to the following questions: First—State your age, state of health and occupation. Second—State if you want spectacles to see distant objects clearly, or for reading and writing only, or for both purposes. Third—State the exact number of inches your eyes are distant from this print, while reading it quickly and with ease.

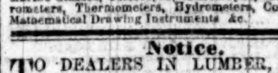

The price for my different qualities of Spectacles are as follows:—Fine Pebble or Crystal Glasses set in fine gold Bows, $12, $10 and $8; in silver bows, 5, 4 and 3 dollars; in steel bows, 5, 4, 3, 2 and 1 dollar a pair. By inclosing one of the above sums, together with 4 post-stamps in your (registered) letter, you will receive by return mail a pair of specs or eye glasses of the quality you paid for, and of the proper power to suit your sight.

Persons desiring additional information on any of the above subjects, or in regard to diseased eyes, &c., must invariably enclose a post stamp in their letter, otherwise it will not be answered. L. E. ROSENBERG, Optician and Graduate of the Optic Occulistic Colleges of Vienna and Paris.

THE following certificates are among numerous others which he has received from the most distinguished and scientific men:

LINDENWALD, Columbia Co., N. Y., May 11, 1850. Dr. Rosenberg—Sir: I have received the Eye Glasses which I ordered at your establishment, and selected by your advice. They are of a superior quality, and perfectly adapted to my sight. I think the French Crystal glasses in clearness and purity of material far surpasses any spectacles I have formerly used. I can now read by their aid the finest print by candle light with ease. I am, sir, respectfully yours, ja26-2m MARTIN VAN BUREN.

JUST PUBLISHED.

THE UNFORTUNATE'S GUIDE, GIVING directions where to obtain Medical aid, and containing astounding facts and thrilling and interesting information never before in print. By Doctor WM. THOMSON. Price twelve cents. Upon the receipt of four postage stamps the book shall be forwarded free from observation, to any address in the United States or Canadas. As it contains important private information for both sexes, the author received, through the Post Office during the last month from various parts of the country and city, over three thousand orders, for as many copies, evidently in the hand writing of females, but doubtless signed, for the purpose of preserving their incognito. It is no "catch penny," but abounds in startling and interesting truths, extracted from the author's diary and case books, the result of thirty year's practice in all climates, in the treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, which gave him better opportunities than those possessed by the Eminent Colic Commissioner, to look behind the curtain.

Address Dr. Wm. Thomson, Box 72, Chicago, Illinois.

☞ Doctor Thomson's Office and Consulting Rooms, 236 Lake street, Chicago, Ill., where every species of Private Disease is treated upon principles founded on the solid basis of science and sound philosophy. Those afflicted with venereal disease (primary or secondary), or any private disease, before applying to any physician for medical assistance, should obtain a copy of the Unfortunate's Guide, and thus be enabled to escape the disastrous consequences of quackery.

Dr. Thomson's Grand Anatomical Museum adjoins his office. Wednesday from 12 M. to 4 P. M., reserved for Ladies. Patients admitted free of Charge. Boys and children never admitted.

DR. HUBBELL'S MEDICAL INFIRMARY,

85 RANDOLPH STREET, 85
Opposite the Revere Hotel.

TO YOUNG MEN AND OTHERS.—NERVOUS Debility and Chronic Diseases, the first and direct consequence of excess and abuse of the sexual system, is a peculiar diseased condition of the seminal organs, which is produced by masturbation. The following disorders, some in one case, some in another, are again the direct consequence of this disease, viz: Seminal Emissions, General Debility and Nervousness, Distaste for Society, Gloomy Presentiments, pain and weakness in the back, impairment of mental vigor and memory, weak and watery eyes, eruptions on the face and body, restlessness or vicious dreams and unrefreshing sleep, unfitness for marriage relation, improper excitability of the organs, stricture, costiveness, piles, dyspepsia, &c.

To these ... more or less in each case, every sufferer from solitary indulgence can attest. And further, any ... or family predisposition to disease, as scrofula, consumption, apoplexy, rheumatism, epilepsy, imbecility, impotence, insanity &c., is almost surely eventually developed into activity, and is among the most frequent cause of those maladies in young persons, as proved by the statistics of all countries. And this is equally true of the sexes. Still if taken in time this disease and its consequences is perfectly amenable to treatment.

Dr. Hubbell has for many years past been consulted upon so many and distressing cases of this vice, that his attention has been necessarily much directed to its treatment and cure, and he is happy to add has, beyond his most sanguine expectations, matured a treatment at once safe and certain, and free from all the painful operations or nauseous medicines.

Think and reflect upon the fact, that no inexperienced physician is worse than none at all, and that it requires constant attention to private diseases to acquire a competent knowledge of their treatment. It is far better to go at once to those who understand the disease in all its minutia.

Having been long established in this city, he can appeal to all for a certificate of success, which should have great weight with the inexperienced.

Highly Important to Females.

DR. HUBBELL, fifteen years in the practice of Medicine, Female Physician and Obstetrician, offers to ladies his professional services in the treatment of every form of disease! All uterine and painful menstrual obstructions requiring surgical operations or otherwise, will be removed by scientific treatment. Convenient advice for consultations and operations, as well as quiet accommodations in Dr. H.'s treatment will ... for those who would like to place themselves under Dr. H.'s treatment until recovered. Experienced nurses always in attendance. Communications for advice promptly answered.

Persons living at a distance, by giving a plain statement of their cases, will be attended to punctually, and medicine forwarded by express to all parts of the United States.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!

Prepared by Dr. Sanford,

IS A GREAT SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL discovery, and is daily working cures almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Head-ache, all of which are the result of a Diseased Liver.

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR!

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body, and when it performs its functions well the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

A compound has been formed by dissolving gums and extracting that part which is soluble for the active virtues of the medicine. These gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the causes of the disease, and effecting a radical cure without any of the disagreeable after effects felt by using CALOMEL or MINERAL POISON that is usually resorted to.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS and a preventive of CHOLERA.

One dose taken often will prevent the recurrence of BILIOUS ATTACKS, while it relieves all painful feelings.

☞ One dose ... needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all yellowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating, gives vigor to the appetite and makes food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures CHRONIC DIARRHŒA in its worst forms, while SUMMER and BOWEL complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by WORMS in children; there is no surer, safer or speedier remedy in the world, as it NEVER fails.

There is no exaggeration in these statements; they are plain, sober facts that we can give evidence to prove, while

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER and all FEVERS of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

Among the hundreds of LIVER REMEDIES now offered to the public, there are none we can so fully recommend as Dr. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, so generally known now throughout the Union. This preparation is truly a LIVER INVIGORATOR, producing the most happy results on all who use it. Almost innumerable certificates have been given of the great virtue of this medicine by those of the highest standing in society, and we know it to be the best preparation now before the public.—(Hudson County Democrat.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAIL ROAD LANDS FOR SALE.

THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD Company invites the attention of Agriculturists and Farmers to the fertile lands adjacent to their road, which are offered for sale upon low terms, and long credit at low rates of interest.

It is the policy and wish of the Company to sell all these lands to actual settlers; and no inducement is offered to speculators; in fact none will be sold on long credit, without the distinct obligation of cultivation.

Illinois occupies the most central position of the Western States, and comprises the most fertile section of the belt of land extending from the Atlantic Ocean to the Missouri River, and including New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and Northern Missouri.

Unlike the States North of us, the productions are not checked by rigorous winters—nor is the heat of summer oppressive. The lands West of the Missouri gradually and rapidly decrease in fertility, till they blend with the Great American Plain, and being chiefly, if not solely adapted to grazing, can never compete with those of this State.

The lands bordering upon the Missouri and Kansas Rivers and upon the lines of the proposed roads in Iowa, have been taken up, and are now selling at from $10 to $15 per acre although settlers there have to pay heavy freights upon the transportation of their agricultural tools, furniture and goods; and when their crops are produced, the extra cost of transportation to Eastern markets exceeds the cost of production.

Looking to the future growth of our country, this State which combines the most favorable temperature with the richest soil and most healthy climate, will for all time be the great grain producing district. It is full of mineral wealth such as Coal, Iron, Lead, Limestone, &c., and has already ... and ... of schools and churches, ... of the investment of capital. Moreover, there is scarcely a county in Illinois which has not a supply of timber. The southern section of the State includes at least 2,000,000 acres of the best quality of timber land; and the extensive prairies in adjoining States, accessible by the Lakes, furnish Chicago with an immense amount of timber and lumber, amounting in 1856 to 460,000,000 feet.

Illinois, especially during the last ten years, has been rapidly developing her resources. The population is now about 1,500,000, and eighty millions of dollars have been expended for Railroads, with the waters of the Mississippi, Illinois River, the Michigan Canal and Lake communications, afford cheap and convenient means for the transportation of her productions to every market. About one million acres of the Company's lands have already been sold, and many flourishing villages evince the rapidly increasing prosperity of the country. In view of the facility and economy with which these lands can be cultivated, that in two years farmers can easily surround themselves with all the comforts of old settled farms in the Eastern States; and such is their fertility and productiveness, that property purchased at from $6 to $25 per acre, with interest at three per cent. interest, can be fairly paid for within that time, together with all the costs of improvements, by extraordinary industry, from the profits of the crops.

Although it is evident that lands in the vicinity of railroads in Illinois will advance to $30 or even $100 per acre within a few years, yet the interest of this Company is the more advanced by placing their property in the hands of farmers, to settle the country, relying upon the business of the road for the profits of the State. These considerations induce the policy of this Company to offer their lands for ... and increasing for two years past, and will be pursued till the lands are finally disposed of. No encouragement is given to speculative purchasers, as the Company does not wish to dispose of any of its lands except for actual settlement and cultivation. It is the policy that the best interests of cultivation and the ... will be promoted as by purchasing and settling upon these lands.

Sheffield Coal.

DAILY ARRIVAL OF 100 TONS.—THIS coal will compare favorably with the best coals in the market. Professors Porter and Silliman, of Yale College, in their analysis, state as follows:

Your coal is of superior quality for the production of steam. We have used the coal in an open grate for several days, and find it perfectly adapted for that use. It burns to a comparatively small quantity of ashes, without producing clinker, &c. &c.

Extract from another analysis: We find your coal even superior to that of the famous Briar Hill in matter of gas and coke.

Our sales, which exceed at the present time by far that of any other yard in the city, prove conclusively that the SHEFFIELD COAL is only to be known to be appreciated.

Among the many advantages arising to the purchaser, the following may be enumerated:

1st. The coal is one of the best in the market. Our daily increasing sales prove this fact; analysis proves it. The following are among the many recommendations received from time to time from some of the most extensive manufacturers in the city:

We have for some time past been using the Sheffield Coal at our works, for the purpose of producing steam. Considering the difference in price between it and other coals in the market, we give the Sheffield Coal the decided preference.

(Signed)
H. P. MOSES, Iron Works.
HAMILTON, BUREAU & CO., Manufacturers.
THOMAS GEORGE & CO., do.
FREDERICK LETZ, Chicago Iron Works.

1st. From some of the most extensive Hotels in the city, the proprietors state as follows:

We are using the Sheffield Coal in our houses. We find it pleasant to burn, producing comparatively little ash. Repeated trial has satisfied us that it will compare favorably with the best coals in the city. Considering the difference in price, we consider it decidedly the cheapest coal in the market.

(Signed)
DORMAN & LANGLEY, Sherman House.
STEVENS & WILLARD, Madison House.
A. J. SINK, Stanwix Hall.

2d. The coal is always dry, and in good condition. At a heavy cost we have erected a commodious building capable of holding 6,000 to 8,000 tons of coal. This covering completely protects our coal from rain and the effects of the atmosphere.

3d. The coal is carefully screened before delivery. This fact alone makes a difference of at least fifty cents per ton in favor of our customers.

This coal is used extensively in Chicago by Brick and Lime manufacturers, and is found especially adapted to that purpose.

For information in this line, we would refer to one of the largest Brick manufacturers in the city—Joseph Wallace, Esq. H. BROOKS & CO.

ATWATER'S

$15 Sewing Machine,

AWARDED THE FIRST PREMIUM AT the New York State Fair, Oct. 9th, 1857—singer's, Wheeler's and Wilson's high-priced machines in competition.

COMMITTEE OF AWARDS:

J. C. CUYLER, Editor of Albany Evening Express.
B. OVIATT, Esq., Practical Machinist and Manufacturer, Rochester, N. Y.
PHINEAS STANTON, Secretary of Ingham University, N. Y.
CALVIN HURBERT, Esq., New-York.

This Machine has been pronounced by scientific and skillful mechanics to be the most durable, practical and complete Machine ever invented, or that can be during the present century. It is in fact the most reliable Machine ever offered to the public, as will readily be seen upon examination. Its other excellences consists in its remarkable simplicity.

The principal is entirely new and original, and wholly unlike any other Machine in the world. Its durability exceeds the best $125 Machine, because it is entirely divested of anything like complicated machinery, so common to all machines now known in the public. It has neither ... hook, shuttle, spring or cam ... ... liable to get out of order, and will ... ... its operation, as they are ... ... slight examination. It is emphatically the Machine for the people. It has but to be seen to be admired, and used to be appreciated.

... We can use it, and every body will have it.

This Machine stands upon its own merits, and is its best reference. We court the most rigid investigation and severest scrutiny of the skeptical, feeling assured that it will result in a perfect confirmation of the facts above stated.

The Patent is well secured in all points, and this being wholly unlike any other Machine, is entirely free from the slightest infringement.

The subscribers have the sole and exclusive agency of the United States and Territories for the sale of ... monopoly, and now ... ... of the Territory for sale, either by States or Counties, upon an equitable and fair basis.

The public are respectfully invited to call and examine the Machines for themselves at our rooms in the
